President Urges Readjustment Of Bankruptcy Laws

MESSAGE IS SENT TODAY TO CONGRESS

Seeks Emergency Action on Grounds it is of Most Vital Importance Now

RAILROADS INCLUDED

Message is Surprise Move on Part of Administration to Get Action

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(UP)—President Hoover today urged congress to give immediate attention to readjustment of bankruptcy laws as an emergency action "of the most vital importance" in bringing about the nation's economic recovery.

In a special message to congress, Mr. Hoover declared specifically that any legislation revising the bankruptcy laws should be made applicable to railroads as well as other individual and corporate debtors.

The message, a surprise move on the part of the administration, followed revelation by the United Press yesterday that a move was under way in Congress with powerful backing, to reorganize the nation's rail carriers upon a sound financial basis.

The message was expected to center attention on the LaGuardia bill in the house and a similar measure in the senate, to be introduced by Senator Hastings, republican, Delaware. These would provide for reorganization of insolvent carriers at the request of security holders.

Reminding the congress of previous messages on the subject of bankruptcy laws revision, Mr. Hoover concluded:

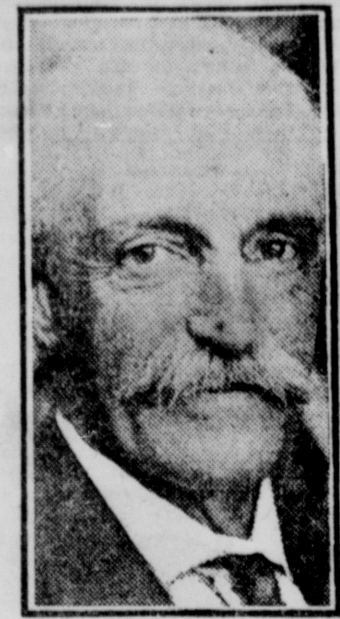

"I wish again to emphasize that the passage of legislation for this relief of individual and corporate debtors at this session of congress is a matter of the most vital importance. It has a major bearing upon the whole economic situation in the adjustment of the relation of debtors and creditors. I therefore recommend its immediate consideration as an emergency action."

The portion dealing with railroads declared:

"In the case of individual and corporate debtors all creditors should be stayed from the enforcement of their debts pending the judicial process of readjustment. The provisions dealing with corporate reorganizations should be applicable to railroads and in such cases the plan of re-

Gov. Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania who appeared before the senate and demanded that Sen. George L. Reed be disciplined for uncomplimentary remarks against the governor's wife.

GOV. PINCHOT APPEARS BEFORE SENATE TO PROTEST ATTACK ON HIS WIFE

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 11.—(UP)—Gov. Gifford Pinchot unexpectedly appeared on the floor of the Senate today and demanded that body discipline Sen. George L. Reed, of Dauphin county, for the reference made to Mrs. Cornelia Bryce Pinchot, wife of the Governor, in an attack on the administration Monday night.

"I cannot properly horsewhip a Senator, however much I may desire to, and however much the Senator may deserve it," the Governor declared.

Members of the Senate were startled by the sudden, unheralded appearance of the chief executive. They sat quietly while the Governor, white faced and with tightly drawn lips, spoke.

Senator Reed sat smoking as the Governor denounced "this cowardly system of striking at me through a woman." The Governor charged a "dastardly attack" instigated by "men high in the Republican organization."

No one could recall a similar occasion in the past when a chief executive of the commonwealth had appeared before the Senate to demand disciplinary measures.

No action was taken by the Senate.

Senator Reed in his attack on the administration from the floor of the Senate referred to an automobile accident in which Mrs. Pinchot is alleged to have figured in Newark, N. J., in 1931. The Senator said there had been gossip about Mrs. Pinchot's sobriety. The senator previously ordered the references by Reed to Mr. Pinchot expunged from its records.

The governor, when he appeared, immediately launched into his attack upon Reed and other administration critics.

"An attack," he began, "has recently been made upon the floor of this chamber so false, so insulting, so inspired by malice, and so entirely beyond the bounds of decency, that the honor of the senate demands action more direct and effective than the mere

Japan Says Not To Sign Russia Pact

Non-aggression Treaty is Impossible According to Government

TOKIO, Jan. 11.—(UP)—Josef Stalin's recent statement that the Soviet government is preparing for war removed the last possibility that Japan might sign a non-aggression pact with Russia, a government spokesman intimated today.

The Soviet government demonstrated that while it was asking Tokyo to sign the pact, it was shifting its entire industrial five year plan to prepare for war, the spokesman said.

The demand of the Japanese military for huge appropriations in the current budget was due to the knowledge of the change in the Soviet program, according to the spokesman.

Stalin's speech, to which the spokesman referred, was delivered before the central executive committee of the Soviet union and was the first pronouncement in 18 months by the virtual dictator of the Soviets.

Stalin told the committee that the far eastern crisis and the failure of "certain neighbors" to sign non-aggression pacts forced the Soviets to devote an unexpected portion of the five year plan to the production of "modern instruments of defense." This change in the program was responsible for the six per cent under-fulfillment of the first five year plan, Stalin said.

The Japanese spokesman did not indicate that Japan intended severing diplomatic relations due to the new developments. It was indicated that the Tokyo government would agree to the nomination of Constantine Yurenev as Soviet Ambassador to Tokyo to succeed Ambassador Troyanovsky, who returns to Moscow in February.

REDRAFT OF COLLIER BEER BILL ORDERED IN SENATE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(UP)—The Blaine subcommittee of the senate today ordered a redraft of the Collier 3.2 per cent beer bill.

The redraft move was designed, committee members said, to bring the house approved modification measure within the limits of the constitution "beyond any doubt."

Chairman Blaine said the subcommittee would meet tomorrow to consider both the bill approved by the house and the new measure.

"The contemplated redraft," he said, "will bring the bill within the constitution without any doubt whatever."

Blaine did not reveal the nature of the proposed changes but they were assumed to embody language already proposed by several committee members.

The suggested changes were to alter the language so as to amend the Volstead law to provide penalties only for traffic in beverages containing more than 3.2 per cent of alcohol by weight.

A tax would be imposed on all beer below that limit. The present statute sets the levy at $6 a barrel. The Collier bill provides for a $9 tax.

Inman Says Dummy Used In Purchase

Option for Building in San Francisco Causes Capital
Turmoil

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Jan. 11.—(UP)—Declaring the state of California would lose approximately $1,000,000 if the lease of a state building annex at San Francisco is carried through the entire term of 25 years, Sen. J. M. Inman today declared his senate investigation committee would attempt to discover the "real owner" of the property.

The lease was signed by Roland A. Vandegrift, state director of finance, on July 27, 1931, Inman said, and obligated the state to pay a rental of more than $60,000 a year.

"Testimony will be introduced to show that a reasonable rental would not exceed $27,500 a year," he added. "This would mean a yearly loss of approximately $35,000 to the state."

"I believe the evidence will reveal that Burke, the lessee, was merely a dummy, having received $50 for the use of his name. It will remain for the committee to discover the real ownership."

"I have been informed that the facts of this lease can be procured from Walter R. Varney, Louis H. Miller, Harry Magee and Harry S. Burke. These men have been mailed letters asking them to appear before the committee to testify. If they refuse it will be necessary to subpoena them."

The lease contains an option under which the state is entitled to buy the property at the beginning of the lease, Inman explained. He declared it is his belief that "the land and building itself would not have a greater value at a maximum than $250,000, which would mean a loss to the state of $300,000."

Two suits are now pending as a result of the lease. The first, Inman said, was filed by certain San Francisco citizens through a taxpayer, and asked cancellation of the lease because of unconstitutionality and fraud.

"State Controller Ray L. Riley refused to issue the warrants ordering the payments due under the lease," he said, "and Vandegrift petitioned the supreme court for a writ of mandamus to compel such payment. The court ordered this writ, but later granted a rehearing."

OIL DERRICKS DOWN

Huntington Beach Reports
75 Derricks Crumpled
Before 80 Mile Gale

A HEAVY GALE, in some sections reaching cyclonic proportions, lashed Orange county and Southern California last night and today, causing damage estimated at more than $1,000,000 in Orange county.

At Huntington Beach, the magnified desert wind toppled over 75 oil derricks and damaged 75 more, causing a loss estimated at $150,000. Crushed derricks were scattered all over the oil fields, blocked the state highway most of the night and scattered debris over a considerable section of the town.

Today the city looked like a cyclone had struck it. More than 50 streets were blocked from fallen trees and oil derricks. Light and telephone poles fell and service from the electric light company was interrupted for several hours.

The greatest loss in the county was in the citrus industry. Navel and green valencias were blown from trees as the gale lashed them. It was estimated that about $750,000 loss was caused to citrus growers of the county from the fruit which dropped on the ground and which was burned by the wind. The figures were based on an estimated fruit drop of five per cent and on last year's citrus returns in the county, not including the storm, which was said to be the most terrific for many years. The velocity was estimated at from 60 to 80 miles an hour at its peak.

During the night and early morning the police department received more than 20 calls for relief from wind damage. Around 50 large trees were blown down in the city, some of them blocking streets. A falling tree punctured the roof of a house on South Main near Cubbon street. Four large plate glass windows in the business area were shattered, besides an unknown amount of window glass which was blown out. Business houses where windows were out were Horton's, Clark's Dollar Store, Wingood Drug store and a saloon at Seventeenth and Main streets.

The wind fanned four small fires in Santa Ana into flames during the night.

FRESNO GRAND JURY MAINTAINS SILENCE

FRESNO, Cal., Jan. 11.—(UP)—Members of the Fresno county grand jury today declined to comment on reports that the tri-county council of the American Legion would demand that the jury apologize for "indecently false statements about ex-service men."

The Legion council adopted a resolution demanding the apology on the ground the grand jury's proposal to eliminate the $1000 veterans tax exemption was a slander to ex-service men as well as other citizens.

"IDEAL COUPLE" IS FORCED TO HIDEOUT

EVANSTON, Ill., Jan. 11.—(UP)—Kidnap threats have driven Northwestern University's "ideal couple" into hiding on their honeymoon, police revealed today.

The threats were received shortly before the marriage of the former Ruth Wenter and Paul S. Cummins last Saturday. Unknown to wedding guests, police guards were posted in St. Augustine Episcopal church at Winnetka during the ceremony. The marriage of the couple attracted considerable publicity due to the fact that the bride had been picked as Northwestern University's "most beautiful girl" and Cummins was named the university's "ideal man."

Their whereabouts today was unknown except to closest friends.

GOGGIN, 73, EARLY LEADER AT CALIENTE

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 10.—(UP)—With the announcement that she was returning to Los Angeles, Betty Compson, film actress who reported the loss of $58,000 in jewelry to robbers last week, checked out of the Agua Caliente hotel last night.

Earlier in the day Miss Compson had indicated she had gone to the Mexican resort to confer with the robbers who, she said, had promised to return the jewels for a settlement.

On leaving the hotel last night she would not say whether the jewels had been returned or whether she had received any word from the robbers during her three day stay.

REOPEN STOCK MARKET PROBE IN WASHINGTON

Affairs of Ivar Krueger,
Swedish Match King,
Are Taken Up

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—(UP)—Chairman Norbeck of the senate banking and currency committee today opened the senate inquiry into the affairs of Ivar Krueger, Swedish match king, with a statement that "bad collateral was substituted for good" in a Krueger & Toll bond issue in which many Americans invested their money.

The investigation would deal primarily with the question of substitution of collateral, Norbeck said as the committee resumed its stock market investigation hearings after several months of inactivity.

"Bad collateral was substituted for good and the bonds have gone down to about nothing," he said. Norbeck said he "understood" investment bankers and stock exchange officials had approved the substitution.

John Marrinan, chief committee investigator, said he had sought to discover whether "safeguards had been set up for the investors, whether the responsible bankers performed their function in this manner and whether the stock exchange officials had been diligent."

"We all know that Krueger was a great swindler and we are beginning to realize that his gambling life should have been evident to some of those institutions involved had they been diligent," Marrinan said.

Witness Called

Donald Durant of Lee Higginson and company, investment bankers, was the first witness.

"At the time you became a director of Krueger & Toll were you able to make a shrewd guess as to the intrinsic values of various securities offered on the market?" Marrinan asked.

"I was familiar with the relative values," Durant replied.

Durant said the American share of the bond issue was $26,500,000 which was purchased by Lee Higginson at "98 less 3 1/2 percent." He said Brown Brothers & Company and Clark Dodge participated with Lee Higginson in the flotation.

Durant testified Lee Higginson made a gross profit of $350,000 from underwriting and selling the bonds.

"Did you guarantee the payment of the sums due when the bonds matured?" asked Senator Fletcher, democrat, Florida.

CO-OPERATION OF FRUIT MEN URGED AT MEET

Waynick Declares Growers of County Lose Three Million in Year

DECLARING that if the pro-rate plan had remained in effect, Orange county citrus growers would have received $3,227,000 more for their crops, Dr. D. D. Waynick, manager of the Association laboratories of Anaheim, made a plea for co-operation of fruit men at the annual meeting of the Anaheim Citrus Fruit association this morning.

For all valencias shipped from California, pro-rate control would have returned $6,000,000 additional, Dr. Waynick declared.

"The California Fruit Growers' exchange shipped 5,042,345 packed boxes of valencias from Orange county in 1932, and assuming 75 per cent of the fruit in the exchange, the total shipments from the county amounted to 3,781,758 packed boxes," Waynick said.

"The average price received for valencias shipped by the Exchange was $1.16 a box net to the grower, or $7,799,000 to all growers on this price basis. Remember that these figures are not to the grower."

"Dr. H. R. Wellman calculates that if 20 per cent less fruit had been shipped, the average price received would have been $2.95 instead of $1.16 per packed box, or a total return of $11,925,000 for the county as a whole, instead of the $7,799,000 actually received, or a difference of $3,227,000 which represents an increase of 41.4 per cent in the actual amount of money which would have been returned to Orange county from this last valencia crop if shipments had been limited 20 per cent with all growers participating. No account is taken of the elimination of packing costs for the boxes not shipped."

"When figured on an acreage basis we arrive at the following: An average of $165 per acre was received for the valencia oranges produced this year on the 47,051 acres in Orange county. If we had shipped 20 per cent less fruit, $2.95 per acre would have been returned, or a net increase of $48 per acre with 100 per cent control of shipments. Under the 99 per cent control, which was predicated in the pro-rate agreement,

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—(UP)—William Meredith, 19, who said he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity from Oregon State university, faced a sentence of 90 days in jail today on charges he stole clothing from fraternity members at the University of Southern California and the University of California at Los Angeles.

The college men complained to Judge Bert H. Woodard in night police court that they had entertained Meredith, only to have him leave with their clothing.

He pleaded guilty to three counts of theft and was sentenced to 90 days on each count.

DAUGHTER OF LEON TROTSKY SUICIDES

BERLIN, Jan. 11.—(UP)—The suicide of Sinaida Volkoff, 32, daughter of Leon Trotsky, was revealed today in a brief police bulletin five days after she ended her life by gas in a rented room here.

Trotsky's daughter was suffering from tuberculosis. Berlin police informed her recently that she might be expelled from Germany, but it was said that no expulsion order had been issued and an application for an extension of her stay was being considered.

She had already been deprived of soviet citizenship, along with other members of the Trotsky family.

Bewildered and depressed, Mrs. Volkoff went to her room and turned on the gas.

SPRECKLES TO FACE HEARING IN HAVANA

HAVANA, Jan. 11.—(UP)—Adolph Spreckles Jr., of San Francisco, will be given a hearing Monday on charges of bringing into Cuba Mexican Marihuana cigarettes, purchased at a Mexican port as a lark. Spreckles did not know that the cigarettes were contraband here, and volunteered the information that they were in his luggage. Customs officers held Spreckles until they were convinced that he was innocent of trying to smuggle the "doped" cigarettes. The American consul was consulted, and Spreckles was released in $1000 bond.

JAPANESE TO QUIT LEAGUE OF NATIONS

GENEVA, Jan. 11.—(UP)—Military members of the Japanese delegation to the League of Nations were understood today to have their baggage packed ready for immediate departure, believing Japan's withdrawal from the league imminent.

Yusuke Matsuoka, head of the Japanese delegation, returns tonight from Milan to prepare for resumption of the League's conciliatory efforts. The committee of 19 meets Monday. Barring a radical change in the attitude of the committee, Japan's early withdrawal was generally anticipated.

RAILROADS RECEIVE LARGER DIVIDENDS

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—(UP)—The Union Pacific railroad and the Southern Pacific company each received $4,800,000 in regular dividends from the Pacific Fruit Express company in 1932, a gain of $1,200,000 from the $3,600,000 received in 1931.

The gain was the result of an increase by the express company in its dividend rate on its $24,000,000 of stock from 30 to 40 per cent. The express company is jointly owned by the two railroads.

ORANGE COUNTY SUFFERS BADLY IN WIND STORM

The night and morning, one at 1505 Spurgeon, one at 1115 Spurgeon, one in the 1000 block on South Main, back of the Orange County Market and one this morning at 2117 Victoria drive. All were trash fires and no fire loss was reported. A grass fire was started in Santiago creek which was extinguished before any damage. The south buildings of Joe Sanford's garage on North Broadway were demolished.

With 265 trees out, a total of 600 telephones in Orange county were out of commission today as a result of falling poles and other wind damage. Fifty telephone poles were blown down in the county. One cable was broken near Garden Grove when a tree fell on the line. The main line to San Diego was out temporarily.

Eight mammoth steel towers of the Edison company transmission system crashed to the ground during the wind storm. Few service poles were reported to have blown down, most of the service interruptions in the county having been caused by wires in trees.

Awaken in the business sections of Orange county cities were lashed ed to shreds by the gale. Fallen trees blocked the state highway south of Tustin today. Three houses were blown out of a barn on the John Smith ranch about a mile west of Ocean avenue, according to a report filed at the sheriff's office. The report failed to state whether the houses were actually blown out of the barn or whether they escaped after the doors of the barn had been blown off their hinges.

Escape Injury
Five members of the Elmer Horton family, Walnut and Redhill avenues near Tustin, miraculously escaped injury when three 200-foot cypress trees crashed to the ground, falling within a few feet of the house.

The gale, which struck the county at 10:15 p. m. yesterday, displaced a heavy fog which had settled over the southern part of the county. No casualties were reported in the county as a result of the storm.

Trees were uprooted and large branches torn from oaks; trees on practically every street of the city of Orange, while signs were torn from a number of buildings. Windows in a large number of homes were broken in according to H. O. Ehlen and the Kogler Hardware company, who were kept busy all the morning replacing them. The plate glass windows in the building in the Whitted block at the corner of Orange street and East Chapman avenue, were smashed by the force of the gale early this morning.

Two fires broke out in the city while the gale was at its height and the Great Western Cordage company plant on West Palm avenue along the Santa Fe tracks was saved from destruction by the quick work of the Orange fire department called to the plant by the night watchman at about 2:30 a. m. The flames which threatened the building on the north were burning within fifty feet of the structure when firemen arrived. Fire started under a row of large cypress trees from an unknown cause and was burning toward the plant in debris and dead leaves. Fire has threatened the building three times within the last three months, each time starting in the mold near the trees, according to firemen.

Fire Breaks Out
Firemen are of the opinion that the fire had been burning for several days under the mold and that the wind fanned it into flames. A strip of ground 100 by 20 feet was burned over. Early this morning the fire department was called to 364 South Olive street, where broken electric wiring had set fire to the dead leaves of a tall palm tree. Just before the wind started a gas explosion in the home of F. M. Marks, 621 East Maple street, started a fire in the bedding and curtains of the room where a gas stove with a leaky connection was burning. Damage was about $10.

Doing an untold amount of damage to surrounding orange groves and city property a giant wind and stand storm descended upon Anaheim and vicinity last night at approximately 11 o'clock and covered the town with fine sand while the orange trees were stripped of much of their fruit.

Dean Waynick, of the Associated Laboratories stated this morning that the fruit was coming down rapidly, but the percentage will not be known for some time yet. More damage than from windfall is being done by the bruised fruit.

The police department was kept busy after midnight answering calls of damage done to local property and the business district.

More glass windows were broken in this storm than in any such storm in recent years. A plate glass window was broken at the Orange County Drug store, the post office, 127 West Center street, the Malt Shoppe on East Center street, and Steven Van Engelen's. The sign was nearly torn off the

AUTHOR TURNS TO SOCIAL ASPECT OF TECHNOCRACY, PAINTS GLOWING PICTURE

BY OTIS PEABODY SWIFT
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—(UP)—While the political and economic sides of technocracy continued to be earnestly, and at times irately, discussed in speeches and statements, Harold Loeb, author, turned to the social aspect of the engineers' theory today with a glowing account of life as it would be lived under a new regime.

The skyscrapers of New York would be abandoned, and the citizens blessed with the equivalent of a $20,000 income from 16 hours of work a week, would live in mass production houses near the places they worked, Loeb said. He presented his ideas in an interview staged as a prelude to the publication Friday of his book, "Life in a Technocracy: What It Might Be Like."

Economist Denounces Theory
Floyd W. Parsons, economist, denounced technocracy before the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce last night as a discredited philosophy seeking to stampede discontent. The propagandists, he asserted, were engineers rather than engineers. On the other side, Professor Walter Rautenstrauch, Columbia university engineer, expressed the hope before the Columbia Institute of Arts and Sciences that "in the darkness of depression, the candles of technocracy may not be blown out by the winds of confusion and distrust."

In Palo Alto, Calif., Theodore Hoover, dean of the Stanford university school of engineering, who is a brother of President Hoover, said technocracy's interpretation of conditions was partly false and partly true. Capable technicians should replace politicians, he said.

Needs Careful Driving
"The large fact which the discussion brings out is that the machine needs careful driving," he said. "The average politician is not a very good driver. We need a lot of better drivers. If we pursue a continuation of more or less haphazard control of mechanical civilization, with no adequate measures of control, the machine will eventually smash us up."

Loeb, explaining that though he had worked for a time with Holland Electric store, electric wires were down at 301 North Emily street, window cracked in the Dutton Jewelry store, the awning about to go through the S. Q. R. store and the side door blown in at the Ford garage.

Radio wireless, protruding skyward were torn off houseposts, branches of trees were blown into gardens and streets and wires were down in many sections of the town.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA HARD HIT BY STORM
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 11.—(UP)—A magnified desert wind, cold, electrical and gusty, swept Southern California during the night and today causing widespread property damage.

The wind reached a maximum velocity of 80 miles an hour at Ontario, in the Pomona valley, while 60-mile gales were reported at Burbank, in the San Fernando valley, and at Los Angeles harbor. An extreme high-pressure area over Nevada caused the gale, according to L. H. Daingerfield, United States meteorologist. At Winnemucca, the barometer stood at 30.70 inches, diminishing to 30.12 inches at San Diego.

The wind poured over the mountains from the north and northeast, enveloping everything in a cloud of dust, uprooting trees, unroofing houses, demolishing signs and small buildings, and disrupting shipping at the harbor.

Five brush fires were raging uncontrolled along the Ventura county line, but because telephone lines were down no information was available as to the extent of the blazes.

Three hundred men were rushed to Calabasas canyon, where a fire broke out near the Paramount ranch. More than 500 acres had been swept at 8 o'clock this morning, it was reported.

At San Pedro, small boats, including an officer's barge from the U. S. navy, and a salvage company barge, were driven ashore at Cabrillo beach. The coast guard radio antenna was demolished, as was the coast guard garage.

Plate glass windows were broken. A shoe store was cleaned out by the wind, shoes being scattered up and down the street.

At Riverside, the streets were buried under fallen eucalyptus trees and other debris. Both local and interurban street car traffic there was disrupted by falling wires.

Motorists were warned not to attempt to drive through the Cucamonga district, between Riverside, San Bernardino and Ontario and Pomona because of the sand-laden gales which covered the highways with drifted dust.

The winds will continue today, with diminishing strength tomorrow, the weather bureau said.

these figures become $165 per acre actually received, $225 which would have been received with 90 per cent of the growers limiting shipments by 20 per cent, or a net gain of $60 per acre.

"Our association shipped 321,643 packed boxes of valencias for a total of $373,105. If we had shipped 257,315 boxes (on the basis that all growers had reduced shipments 20 per cent less fruit) we would have received $373,495, or an increase of $154,390 to be distributed to each and every member of this association in proportion to the amount of fruit shipped. If 90 per cent of the growers had participated as outlined under the prorate agreement, $136,983 more would have been received by our own association. This means that every member of this association would receive today a check in the average amount of $500 if a control plan had been fully successful."

"If a single control agency could have had full knowledge of the movements of every car of fruit leaving California, it is probable that we would have received at least 25 cents per box in addition due simply to the better distribution of the entire crop. This would amount to $1,845,000 additional for the county as a whole."

Dr. Waynick declared that data compiled on the prorate agreement revealed that an increase of 40 cents per box of fruit was due directly to controlled shipments. Ninety-one per cent of the shippers were in the prorate agreement for a short period of time. The Mutual Orange Distributors and the Gold Buckle association later withdrew and with only 80 per cent signed up, it was deemed unwise to continue the plan, Dr. Waynick recalled.

"We must realize that a control of shipments such as I have outlined cannot in itself make the industry profitable, but it can go a long way toward making it self-supporting," Waynick declared.

"Just imagine what it would mean if each one of you owning 10 acres of oranges were to receive a check at this time for $650. It would pay taxes and water costs, would pay interest on $1000 per acre addition valuation on your grove, or would cover fertilizer and part of the labor costs for a year."

"We must learn that fruit is raised to sell at a profit. If not all will bring a profit, let us move that part that will. We must forget that fruit is raised to pick only. In this industry the prosperity of the individual is inseparably tied in with the prosperity of all."

"Oh, no sir," Durant replied, explaining Lee Higginson and associates bought the bonds and merely assumed the risk of their disposition.

"How long did it take you to dispose of the bonds?" asked Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana. "The syndicate lasted about 90 days," Durant replied.

He submitted a report showing that Lee Higginson had participated in the flotation of an aggregate of $112,000,000 of Krueger securities in the United States.

Denial Made
Durant said he knew of no other Krueger allocation here in which collateral substitution was permitted. The original collateral included $12,000,000 of French bonds which Marrinan charged were included for "window dressing."

Durant denied that, but said Hungarian bonds were substituted for the French collateral.

Marrinan brought out that a large proportion of the present collateral behind the bonds is in Sweden, although legally in custody of the American trustees.

"The substitution clause had the effect of permitting the substitution of inferior collateral for the original French bonds," Senator Costigan, Dem., Colo., said. Durant replied that there was an "inferiority" but he could not estimate how much.

"Did Lee Higginson have prompt notice of the substitution?" Marrinan asked.

"I don't know whether they sent it to us or not," Durant replied. Marrinan said the underwriting banker should keep informed of such matters.

"I understand," Marrinan continued, "that the New York stock exchange had no knowledge except on their own inquiry March 21, 1932, nine days after Krueger's suicide."

"Do you think that where the public and exchange were kept generally ignorant of the substituted collateral that the American investor was adequately protected?" Durant said Lee Higginson had a responsibility to keep the investor informed because Krueger and Toll had undertaken to do that.

Durant testified he never attended a Krueger and Toll directors meeting. He was in Paris the day Krueger killed himself.

OPPOSITION OVER BILL DEVELOPS

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 11.—(UP)—Opposition developed in the assembly today against the resolution requesting Governor Rolph to ask the Reconstruction Finance corporation for a loan of $45,000,000 to be distributed to counties for relief work.

Assemblyman Frank Lee Crist of Palo Alto halted the measure which was adopted by the senate yesterday, and sent to the assembly for final passage.

Seven counties including Los Angeles, Riverside, San Bernardino, Orange, Santa Barbara, Monterey and San Diego have already made application to the state for funds if the loan is obtained.

Crist's objection resulted in the resolution being sent to the federal affairs committee for consideration.

organization should not become effective until it has been approved by the interstate commerce commission.

"I urge that the matter be given attention in this session, for effective legislation would have most helpful economic and social results in the welfare and recovery of the nation."

"The process of forced liquidation through foreclosure and bankruptcy sale of the assets of individual and corporate debtors who through no fault of their own are unable in the present emergency to provide for the payment of their debts in ordinary course as they mature, is utterly destructive of the interests of debtor and creditors alike, and if this process is allowed to take its usual course misery will be suffered by thousands without substantial gain to their creditors, who insist upon liquidation and foreclosure in the vain hope of collecting their claims."

"In the great majority of cases such liquidation under present conditions is so futile and destructive that voluntary readjustments through the extension or composition of individual debts and the reorganization of corporations must be desirable to a large majority of the creditors."

JAPAN NOT TO SIGN TREATY WITH RUSSIA

ment on the offer of a pact with the Soviets, and in fact did not even notify Moscow that the offer had been received, the Soviets revamped their industrialization plan to concentrate on the production of heavy machinery, and resumed diplomatic relations with China.

Observers here had believed that Japan would agree to the Russian pact if the Soviets would recognize the new Manchurian state of Manchukuo, set up by the Japanese. It was indicated that Moscow was, at one time, ready to agree to this solution. The Soviet protected Japanese interests in parts of Manchuria where the Japanese had few troops, especially during the occupation of Manchuria by the Chinese insurgent Su Ping-Wen. Japanese refugees, including many women and children, were transferred safely into Soviet territory, and Soviet consuls advanced money for food and clothing.

A year passed, however, with no Japanese action on the proposed pact. The Russians made the original offer for an agreement of conciliation and non-aggression. When Kenkichi Yoshizawa, who presented the Japanese case to the League of Nations when the league first tackled the Manchurian dispute, was recalled to Tokyo to become foreign minister, he stopped en route at Moscow. Although there was no official announcement at the time of the results of informal visits with Vice Foreign Commissar Leo Karakhan and other Soviet officials, it was revealed later that Yoshizawa took the Russian offer of a pact to Tokyo.

Yoshizawa was foreign minister in the cabinet of Premier Inukai, who was slain by terrorists. With the passing of Inukai and the retirement from active politics of Baron Shidehara and other Japanese statesmen who had advocated policies of conciliation, the military got the upper hand and nothing more was heard of the proposed pact.

In England, during the 17th century, it was customary for gentlemen to smoke in church.

A WORD OF COMFORT

There are learned men who are unsympathetic and righteous ones who are inconsiderate. Some unlearned people are strangely kind; some, though tender of heart, easily yield to temptation.
The latent capacities of your soul will rouse through your sorrow. You will know a fuller and better balanced life in the light of your new interests.
Frankly face your failures, and ask God for strength to meet the new tasks now disclosed.

DECLARES HE WILL REQUEST RETRACTION

Declaring his intention of demanding a public retraction of statements made yesterday by W. L. Delming and Allison Honer of the grand jury, relative to the administration of his office, County Assessor James Sleeper made a personal appearance before the grand jury today.

Declaring that statements made before the supervisors yesterday by Delming and Honer, had not been founded upon either fact or inquiry he branded them "either criminal stupidity or political propaganda unbecoming a grand juror."

Prior to meeting with the grand jury, Sleeper issued a public statement refuting claims and estimates regarding his office. In this statement he presented statistics of his office expenditures, blasting the figures recited to the supervisors by the two grand jurors, who said that a saving of $6000 a year could be made if Sleeper would purchase his paper supplies upon bids instead of limiting the business to a certain San Francisco firm.

The grand jurors also estimated another saving of $4000 per year if Sleeper would change his book-keeping system from the alphabetical form of entry to the geographical form. They charged that his present system is in conflict with those of the auditor and tax collector, forcing extra expense upon those departments.

Total Budget $5470
Sizing with wrath as he prepared to confront his critics on the grand jury, Sleeper exhibited records to show that $7398.24 represented the total cost of all his office supplies for 1931-32 including paper, binders, real estate estimates (a four year supply), stationery, envelopes, stamps, ink, pens, and every other item of supply.

Sleeper also displayed his budget for 1932-33, which he had reduced to $5470.
"How, I'd like to know, could the wise grand jury committee save $600 out of a $5470 budget?" Sleeper asked.

"As for their talk of book-keeping systems, my office has no book-keeping system, except for personal property. What the committee perhaps means is the assessment roll, which is in alphabetical form, by school districts, and could not be framed practically in any other form."

Relative to the purchase of paper supplies, Sleeper said that they were purchased through a local printing firm, though the product did come from San Francisco. The type of printing required, he said, could not be produced in the county.

Referring to the grand jury "investigation" Sleeper declared that the grand jury committee never had interviewed him nor examined his office prior to making the statement to the supervisors. "The whole thing has a queer look to me," he said.

Replying to Delming's assertion to the supervisors that "In the courthouse we find numerous little kingdoms within kingdoms and an elected officer, if he stays within the statutes, is a kingdom to himself," Sleeper declared:

"If these offices are little kingdoms it is the fault of the state law and not the county officials, as we have to conduct our offices as the law dictates.
"The statement of this grand jury committee constitutes the most unjust and unfair statement ever made by any grand juror since I have been in office," Sleeper declared.

In his talk Dr. Warner stressed the importance of the ordinary businessman, "the very backbone of our economic system," he said. Professor Dorsey outlined the United States educational system, and stated that teaching is rapidly becoming a profession with both tangible and intangible awards. The three essential qualifications for a good teacher, Professor Dorsey told the students, are (1) a fairly good personality; (2) mental and physical fitness; and (3) a general education.

INTEREST IN TECHNOCRACY SHOWN IN ADDRESSES FOR FOUR MEETINGS YESTERDAY

Interest of the public in the new subject, Technocracy, is shown in the fact that it was the feature of addresses and discussions at four meetings here yesterday.

A public forum at the Y. M. was addressed by W. M. Burke; Dr. George A. Warner spoke at the Baptist Men's club, and J. F. Burke spoke at the Knights of the Round Table and 20-30 clubs.

MEN'S CLUB HEARS TALK BY WARNER

Speaking before the Men's club of the First Baptist church last night Dr. George A. Warner, pastor of the First Methodist church, discussed the question "Is Technocracy a New Relative of Christianity?" Dr. Warner was the speaker replacing Dr. Perry F. Schrock who could not attend because of illness.

Technocracy he branded as a spirit of inquiry. It is an investigation being conducted by a highly trained group of engineers. Their work has been going on for 12 years and recent publicity given their efforts might be considered as premature, he said.

The work of investigation, he pointed out, is being carried on by 350 scientifically trained engineers. Inasmuch as all great movements run on personality the training and standing of these men give us cause to investigate their findings and to await the arrival of their conclusions.

Technocracy, he said, is a criticism of the present "price system" which the technocrats declare will break down of its own weight because of its "debt selling." "Underlying industrial America at present there is a debt of 215 billion. Profits made are reinvested. We are nearing the point of collapse because of the excessive expansion hereby demanded. These investigators feel that the unemployed problem can never be solved under the price system."

Immediately after the dinner and preceding the address by Dr. Warner, a musical program was presented by Mrs. Cecil Frost Willis, vocalist, with Miss Ruth Armstrong accompanying her at the piano.

John James, president of the club, presided during the dinner and turned the meeting over to Herman J. Powell, program chairman, following a brief business session of the club.

Y LOBBY FILLED FOR FORUM MEET

A crowd that filled every available seat in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. building last night heard W. M. Burke, member of the board of education and Santa Ana attorney, deliver a talk on Technocracy last night.

The meeting, sponsored as an open forum event by the Toastmaster's club, was one of a series of weekly meetings held under the auspices of the club. William Iverson presided.

Following an outline of the theories and history of Technocracy, Burke dwelt upon the implications which come from the facts set out by the Technocrats.

as the result of their charting of the increasing productive power of man through the use of the machine which has resulted in wide spread unemployment. He tied in the question of eugenics with the working out of a new and satisfactory economic and social system to meet the needs of the times.

The speaker opened his talk by declaring that he could not see how anyone could be for or against Technocracy any more than they could be against the law of gravitation. He explained the statement by saying that Technocracy has done little more than set out facts, and that other organizations and individuals have built super-structures upon these facts, many of which have been criticized.

It is necessary, he said, for sane and intelligent people to examine the facts and to talk them over in an endeavor to reach a conclusion in order to avoid violent action.

Dr. Burke pointed out that the implications emanating from the facts given out by the Technocrats are more important than the actual facts. "Technocracy," he said, "is not satisfied to talk about energy. It talks about substituting a unit of energy for our present unit of value."

"The present unit of value is the dollar, which is certainly no more than so many grains of gold, whether coined or not. The value fluctuates. Inflation is recommended by some so prices will go up. The dollar has been the unit of value in the United States for but 30 years. It fluctuates to the disadvantage of both creditors or debtors, depending on whether it goes up or down."

He pointed out that products of machines should be divided among three classes, capitalists, laborers and land owners. The great economic difficulty, he said, has been to determine just what the division should be.

"Through a benevolent God, we have reached a point where we can produce more than we can use. This is the most hopeful thing that has ever happened in the world if it is true. If we do our part we can abolish poverty."

"We can't get away from the price system. I think what the Technocrats mean is to get away from the private profit system, and not the price system."

Dr. Burke called attention to the report made by President Hoover's commission on social trends, which said "there can be no assurance that a violent revolution will not result unless something is done."

"The people of the United States are long-suffering," he said. "They are waiting patiently for leaders to point the way out." He scoffed at the recommendations made by a large group of prominent businessmen, capitalists and industrialists, who have advised the creation of more automatic machinery, creation of more needs for the people and creation of new industries as a solution for the problem.

Following the address, an open forum was held, with many persons present presenting their views of the matter. Wilfred Taylor criticized Technocracy for not telling how to turn affairs over to the technicians and for not mentioning the fact that deflation and bankruptcy and devaluation of money aid in reducing piled up debts.

W. F. Cuddy brought up the point that he couldn't see what reward Technocracy would give for personal initiative and ambition. Another member of the audience suggested that the goal of life be changed from the dollar to public service.

ROUND TABLE MEN JOIN DISCUSSION

A round table discussion of Technocracy, led by J. F. Burke, who outlined the theories previous to the discussions, featured the regular weekly meeting of the Knights of the Round Table which was held yesterday noon in Ketter's cafe.

Entertainment for the meeting was provided by the Foster Sisters, who sang several songs accompanied at the piano by Curtis Garrett.

Speaking from the standpoint of a man whose life experience followed the current of the machine age, Burke told how he had been victim of machine displacement, and later how he had displaced labor by machines as head of a factory and as a newspaper publisher.

He explained how for a period of time he had found employment in making the new machinery which was demanded in the new machine age and in filling the increased wants of people. This time, he said, has passed because machinery is now used for making the modern machinery which is fast displacing man as an important working unit.

YOUNG MEN HEAR TALK ON TECHNOCRACY

"Technocracy" was discussed by J. F. Burke when he was the featured speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Santa Ana Twenty-Third club which was held last night in Ketter's cafe.

Previous to the address, Vera Merilyn Getty entertained club members and guests with a song and dance. LaRene McMillen gave an acrobatic wait. The pair presented a "Tomboy Tap" dance, accompanied at the piano by Duncan Harnois.

Reappoint Jeffrey To Ortega Board

Carrying out reorganization plans for the board of trustees of Joint Highway district No. 15, building Ortega highway, Supervisor George Jeffrey yesterday submitted his resignation as trustee of the highway district from Orange county. The resignation was submitted and

ACTIVITIES OF LEGION WOMEN ARE REPORTED

The Buena Park American Legion Auxiliary entertained members of the Orange County Auxiliary council and many distinguished visitors yesterday in the Legion hall, when the regular council meeting was held.

Distinguished state and district officers who were introduced included Mrs. Edith Howerton, state legislative chairman, of Upland; Mrs. Beulah Curran, state co-operative sales chairman, of Anaheim; Mrs. Ethel Marsh, of Upland; Mrs. Margaret Cullinan, state musician, of Huntington Beach; Mrs. Ada Pennington, twenty-first district membership chairman, of Ontario; Mrs. Marion Mathews, district Americanization chairman, of Santa Ana; Mrs. Lillian Thorpe, twenty-first district co-operative sales chairman, of Garden Grove; Mrs. Margaret Peabody, chairman of disaster and relief, of La Habra; Mrs. Effie Oplinger, rehabilitation chairman, of Ontario; Mrs. Maude Nicholson, president of the Ontario auxiliary unit, and Mrs. Violet Webster, twenty-first district legislative chairman, of Huntington Beach.

Mrs. Enid Wilson, county council president, introduced the state and district officers and presided over the meeting.

Activities Reported
Anaheim reported $56 realized from co-operative sales, the distribution of 14 baskets to veterans' families at Christmas. Brent reported work accomplished in the baby clinic which they sponsor as well as Christmas basket and gifts. Buena Park gave a report on the bazaar held recently and gifts given to veterans' children, the Christmas party for veterans and their families and a large box of cigarettes, candies, cakes, jellies and jam sent to the San Fernando hospital. The poppy contest was also reported under way.

Pullerton gave a lengthy report on their many activities in the various relief organizations in Pullerton as well as the soup kitchen sponsored by them in two of the grammar schools. Garden Grove unit reported assisting in filling 250 sacks with candies and nuts for the community Christmas tree, gifts to San Fernando and Christmas gifts to their Gold Star Mothers. Huntington Beach conducted a Christmas for men in the cancer ward at the hospital. La Habra reported they are assisting in making and placing of many layettes. Newport, Orange, Placentia, San Clemente, Seal Beach, San Juan Capistrano, reported their assistance given at Christmas time as well as their activity in the many welfare projects and Girl Scout and Girl Reserves which they sponsor. Tustin reported in addition to help rendered at Christmas time the securing of 13 days work for veterans of that community. Santa Ana besides Christmas aid reported that their mothers club had made and given a quilt for a needy family. Mrs. Wilson expressed her appreciation of the various unit activities. Letters of thanks and appreciation from many of the veterans in the different wards at San Fernando were read by the secretary.

Adopt Resolution
A "Buy American Resolution" was read and adopted by those present who expressed their sincere belief in its program.

Mrs. Edith Howerton, state legislative chairman, in answer to numerous requests gave a clear and concise explanation of the widows and orphans pension bill now pending in the senate and asked that all units who have not sent their telegrams to their representative chairman do so at once and asked their support for the forming of a separate senate veterans committee, and explained the "Needs Clause" which has been added to the measure, nullifying to some extent the purpose of the bill. After hearing instructions from various state chairmen the holding of an hour of parliamentary procedure study before the luncheon period at each county council was favorably discussed and will form a part of the council's program in the future. Mrs. Mary Mathews, Mrs. Edna Elliott and Mrs. Boyd were appointed to draw up a resolution requesting that the school nurses be kept on duty at the schools, and presented to the Legion county council being held Friday evening to be given with theirs to county officials.

A rising vote of thanks was extended to Buena Park unit members for the delicious luncheon served. The committee in charge of tables were Mrs. Audrey Parker, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Dacie Rodabough and Mrs. L. A. Sonke. Mrs. Viola Cowan assisted by Mrs. Anna Ruth McKenzie. MANY ATTEND FINAL RITES HARRY DUCKETT Impressive funeral services for Harry Duckett, prominent retired Santa Ana newspaper publisher who died Saturday, were held yesterday afternoon in the chapel of Smith and Tuttle Funeral home with a large group of friends attending. Numerous beautiful floral offerings paid mute testimony to the popularity of the deceased Santa Ana, who had lived here for the past 33 years.

H. H. Fitten read the Christian Science service in the chapel. Mrs. Holmes Bishop was soloist, accompanied at the piano by Harry Garstang. Following the services, interment was made in Fairhaven cemetery.

Funeral bearers were old friends, W. B. Williams, Earl Morrow, J. F. Baumgartner, George Briggs, M. C. Kenton and P. S. Roper.

Duckett is survived by his widow, Mrs. Katie Duckett.

PIANIST

Maurice Zam, internationally known pianist, will be the second artist on the Orange County Civic Music association concert course, and will be presented Thursday night at 8:15 o'clock in the Knights of Pythias hall, 325 West Center street, Anaheim.

CITRUS GROWTH UNDER AVERAGE

Average growth of Valencia oranges in the citrus district through the last month has been below the average, due probably to the relatively low humidity prevailing through most of the month, according to the monthly report released today by Dr. D. D. Waynick of the Association Laboratory of Anaheim.

The measurements are taken at regular intervals in 25 representative orange groves in Orange and other citrus producing counties. According to the report, the average sizes at this time are more nearly comparable with 1929 than any other year since measurements were started.

Average size of outside fruit measured was 2.37, running 2.86 to the box, while inside fruit measured 2.19, or 2.49 to the box. The growth rate during the past month was .055 inches for outside fruit and .062 inches for inside fruit.

PROGRAM FOR ZAM CONCERT IS ANNOUNCED

With anticipations increased by memories of the power and beauty of the first musical event of the Civic Music association of Orange County, the Coe Glade concert in Santa Ana, Ebell auditorium, association members now turn their attention to the event promised for tomorrow night, the piano program promised by Maurice Zam, internationally known concert pianist who will be presented in Anaheim Knights of Pythias hall, 325 West Center street.

It is not as a stranger that Maurice Zam comes to an Orange county audience, for as the guest in Santa Ana several years ago of the Clarence Gustins, he impressed musical audiences with his powers as an artist as well as by his interesting personality. In the intervening years he has reaped many triumphs in European music capitals, returning only a few months ago to his native Boston from whence he came to the Southland just before the holidays. Some of these triumphs abroad came to him in Germany, probably boasting the most critical musical audiences in the world.

Not all of his European tour was devoted to concertizing, however, for Maurice Zam has a great objective in life, the intention of presenting to the world, the too little known composer, Kuhnau, declared to be the greatest figure in piano music before Bach, and a man whose pioneering made the way easier for his successors in the music fields of the world.

Composing, writing and lecturing all interest this young artist, and in the latter field he has appeared in illustrated lectures at Harvard university and also at Radcliffe. His lectures are devoted largely to the evolution of music and music in its relation to life and to other arts.

To those who have heard his masterly piano work, it is interesting to know that his first performance appearances were as a singer and when he was a child of seven he had the honor of singing for Caruso. He recalls with much amusement, the ambitious trend of his selected songs, for he sang arias from two operas, "Aida" and "Carmen."

It was not until he was 12 years old that his talents were directed into the piano field, then he had the privilege of studying under Madame Helen Hopkirk, declared by Leschetizsky, to be the greatest woman musician he ever knew. Succeeding studies have been under such masters as Arthur Schnabel of Berlin.

In his studies of Kuhnau, whom he characterizes as a "neglected genius," he has been impressed by the fact that his works, antedating Bach, Handel and Mozart, contain passages of the most marked modernity. To prove this statement, he has included Kuhnau's "Bible Sonata in G Minor" in the program he is to present Thursday night, and declares that musicians and critics in the audience will be impressed by its splendidly descriptive passages.

This will be the Sonata's first presentation in the United States, although Harold Bauer has included one of the movements in eastern programs.

A Reinke "Fugue in G Minor" also will have its first American presentation, and is promised as "a work of rare virtuosity and humor." A Schubert "Sonata in C Minor," Chopin "Mazurkas in C sharp Minor and A Minor," "Etudes-Caprices" by Paganini-Schumann; "Hamburg Cycle" by Niemann; "Notturmo" by Respighi; "Valse" by Ravel, and finally the ultra modern "Variations—Mary Had a Little Lamb" by Balantine, will compose his program.

The artist will be introduced by Dr. Herbert A. Johnston, president of the Music association, and at the close of the program, will be complimented at a reception which Dr. and Mrs. Johnston are giving to all association members, in their beautiful home, 1401 South Los Angeles street, Anaheim.

Art Supervisor Will Broadcast

Hazel Neil Bemis, supervisor of art in Santa Ana schools, will deliver a lecture on the subject, "Art Appreciation in the Public Schools" over KTL, Los Angeles radio station, at 1:45 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, it was learned today.

The talk is to be given as part of the programs being broadcast under the supervision of Fern Burford of Laguna Beach with the object of creating better taste in California homes and buildings.

227 CARS LEMONS BRING $262,231 TO IRVINE HOUSE

Shipping 227 cars of lemons, the Irvine Citrus association received gross returns of $262,231, it was announced at the annual meeting held yesterday. A refund of $27,563 was voted.

Officers of the association were re-elected. They are: C. V. Newman, president; A. L. Trickey, vice president; George Jeffrey, J. H. Pankey, H. W. Walker, C. E. Utt and James Irvine jr., directors, and J. H. Bray, secretary-manager.

The association ships lemons exclusively and is affiliated with the California Fruit Growers' exchange. The packing plant is located on the San Joaquin ranch.

planting of oranges, grapes, tobacco or cotton, a drought or flood or a great freeze, all or any of these things change the relative value in commodities and in Gold and Silver.

The Gold Standard is one method of trying to fix values and it only works at the exact time the exchange of commodities is made, but never after that time if payment of the debt, bond or contract is projected to some future time. If the national, state and local debt of $30,000,000,000 could be Commodity-Evaluated now, it would be only one-fourth, or $7,500,000,000 and our so-called statesmen could go fishing and not worry.

Each state and a national commission should fix the value of ten commodities in each state under which bonds and debts and mortgages coming due should be commodity-evaluated for the ensuing fiscal year in advance, predicated on values of the preceding year.

It is time reason and not speculation should enter into finance and money circulation which would stop future panics by placing bonds and debts payable on commodity evaluated currency in which they were contracted. Gold and silver would be only commodities then.

E. U. BRIGGS, Corona del Mar, Cal. The George Washington bridge over the Hudson river has a main span of 3,500 feet.

Thus, bonds or debts contracted with wheat at $2, corn at $1, hogs at 15 cents, cotton at 20 cents, labor at $7 per day, would be repaid now with one bushel of wheat, corn, hogs and cotton and day labor in units of Commodity-Evaluated Currency; or—if wheat was worth $3 now and ten commodities are higher now than when the debts were contracted, it should be paid in Commodity-Evaluated Currency adjusted to this higher price thereby establishing under any and all circumstances that might arise in either peace or war times, and the dollar would be a medium of exchange not merely an empty-sounding phrase, "an intrinsic value."

National debts could be paid and whenever all nations adopted the system of Commodity-Evaluated Currency, bonds and debts would be no burden to pay. Now, for example, if a man bought a farm at $150 per acre, he must of necessity pay this money out of that farm's commodities, if it has a value for farm purposes. It would require 100 bushels of wheat at $1.50 plus interest to pay for 1 acre of land; and now if wheat is 50 cents per bushel it increases his debt three times, hence bankruptcy is the result.

But—if the debt could be paid in Commodity-Evaluated Currency, he could pay it with 100 bushels of wheat at the same comparative price as when the debt was contracted. The bond or mortgage holder would get his currency plus interest in the same number of loaves of bread, (or other commodities) pounds of pork, or days of labor to which he should be entitled and no more. This is how the commodity-evaluated currency bonds and debts system would work with ten principal commodities as a base. The base could be expanded with the same principle of result. The principal commodities of each state.

This shows that $25.15 purchased the same quantity of commodities in 1920 as $6.32 purchases in 1932. This is practically one-fourth the dollar, and should be paid with this amount as the bond-holder will receive the exact quantity of commodities now as when the bond was issued. Isn't that just to all concerned?

We live on commodities, not on dollars. Money is only a medium of exchange. Fixing values in terms of dollars, pounds or francs is the cause of our present monetary chaos. There is no power to make these values stay fixed. Inflation or deflation of money, a large crop of wheat or a new gold field discovered, an enlarged

ASK APPROVAL FOR REPAIRS ON RIVER BANK

Approval of expenditure of state funds for repair work on the bank of the Santa Ana river in Redlands was delayed yesterday by the board of supervisors pending receipt of more data relative to the proposed expenditure. Funds for the work, it is planned will come from the Tri-County flood control fund now being held in the state treasury.

Flood Control Engineer Murray Thompson appeared before the board with the request for approval of the expenditure, as required by the law governing use of money from this fund. Approval of all expenditures must be given by supervisors from all three counties participating in benefits from the money, and the amount appropriated must be matched by local funds, according to the law.

Thompson said that the city of Redlands made the original request for funds with which to do certain repair work to the embankment along the Santa Ana river between Tennessee and Jefferson streets, last May. The request was referred to Thompson and Engineer Paul Bailey.

Thompson and Bailey referred the matter back to the city of Redlands for a statement from the state engineering department as to whether or not the work could be financed from the state appropriation. The matter has just been returned to Orange county with the informal approval of the state engineer.

Thompson informed the board yesterday that the proposed work would in no way affect the water supply. He said that the plan called for construction of a protective bank for a distance of approximately 5000 feet and, according to engineers' estimates would cost approximately $3 per foot to construct.

FIRE IN DERRICK PUT OUT HUNTINGTON BEACH, Jan. 11. Welders at work at the Wilshire well at Nineteenth and Walnut caused a fire yesterday. Sparks from the welding job ignited timber from the derrick foundation floor. The fire department made a quick run and with the use of the chemical tank quickly extinguished the blaze.

'STAFF MAN' TO SUCCEED SCHISSLER

WILLIAM BRAUCHER

The best middleweight in the world is not Marcel Thill. The best middleweight in the world is not Gerilla Jones. The best middleweight in the world is just about as cute as any of the lads in that division now.

The best middleweight in the world is a colored boy named Sammy Slaughter, under the management of Bud Taylor, the old Terre Haute bantam. Sammy knocks them out with a flick of the wrist.

ON FOOTBALL TEAMS

The best football team in the United States is not Pittsburgh, which this misled writer believed before Jan. 2. But Pittsburgh will have the best outfield in the National League next year with Lindstrom and the two Waners. So that's something.

ON THE BOX OFFICE

In an effort to overcome anticipated apathy toward the Washington club without Walter Johnson, Clark Griffith has made some minor moves with an eye to the box office. One of them was the naming of Joe Cronin as manager, an interesting experiment that either will make a great manager or ruin a fine ball player. Another was the return of Goose Goslin, adding a gob of color to the team. The addition of Whitehill and Stewart to the pitching forces makes the Senators the most improved club in either league, and improvement is what makes the turnstiles spin.

ON NOTRE DAME TEAMS

When Reggie Root appointed Bucky O'Connor backfield coach at Yale, and retained Adam Walsh as line coach, he added one more Notre Dame team to the eastern list. The other addition for next season will be at Fordham where Jimmy Crowley, one of the Four Horsemen, will build lines backfield and character. Mr. Crowley will not use the Warner system.

HEFFRON TO BE ANAHEIM CLUB BUSINESS BOSS

Jimmie Heffron, well known and highly respected Anaheim sports editor, will be the next business manager of Anaheim's Southern California championship night baseball club, according to well established reports here today.

One of two new members appointed on Anaheim's baseball commission by the city council last night, Heffron is scheduled to succeed K. R. Rigby as the Valencia's chief of staff. It is understood, Rigby asked to be relieved of his duties on account of business pressure. W. N. Wimmer also resigned. Heffron and Frank Tausch were named to succeed them on the board.

Although the Anaheim business manager's duties do not include handling the team on the field, they require that he largely determine the policy of the club in all league affairs.

Heffron probably will be named business manager at an organization of the new commission tomorrow. Joe C. Elliott, president; Rudolph Nyboe and Charles Pearson are holdover members.

Although Vic Ruedy is virtually sure of retaining his post as manager of the Valencia's next summer, Anaheim is due to lose its ace pitcher, "Fuzzy" Errington. Westman is understood to have an inside track to the slow-ball wizard's services in 1933.

COLUMBUS BUILDS

The Columbus American association ball club has obtained Nick Cullop, slugging outfielder of the Rochester club in the International league; Bud Teschout, former Chicago Cubs hurler; and Clarence Heise, Rochester pitcher.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—(INS)—Craig Wood should qualify for the All-American quarterback of golf—if the theory is correct that quarterbacks should be smart. The blond pro from Deal, N. Wood's drives were consistently shorter than Diegel's, which surprised "Elbows" for Wood had always outdriven him in previous tournaments where they had matched shots, and Wood was "hot" this day.

Hines Decisive Victor Over Roldon

U. S. CHAMPION UNDER WRAPS: WANA WINNER

Substituting for Joe DeLucia, whose absence caused a general rearrangement of the entire card, Carlos Roldon of Long Beach stood up three rounds with America's best amateur featherweight here last night but lost every round and the decision of Referee Jack McDonald.

Johnny Hines, the champion, made another indelible impression while turning back the challenge of the spirited Roldon, who had been scheduled to appear in the special event against Brassie Mitchell. Hines took every round decisively, giving off the time of a suspicion that he was winning under wraps.

Realizing his opportunity was at hand, Roldon carried the battle to Hines in the first round with a fast right hand that found the mark occasionally but Hines, warming up to the task, discouraged Roldon's offensive maneuvers in the second and third. The champ breezed in an easy winner, increasing his margin of superiority considerably in the last round.

A few Mexican fans in the gallery booed the decision lustily but the consensus was that Hines was well in front.

Seek Strong Foe For Hines The attendance was pretty good so Matchmaker Kid Mexico proposes to send Hines right back into the top spot next week. Mexico is angling for the services of Freddie Young, a Los Angeles featherweight who won't have to weaken himself making 126 pounds.

If the Young-Hines match cannot be made, Mexico probably will put on top Bill Wana, Westminster's Improved 140-pounder, who shaded southpaw Brassie Mitchell in the semi-windup. This one was exceptionally close only Wana's third round flurry putting him across. McDonald had to make the decision, the judges disagreeing.

Roy (K.O.) Johnson, a colored boy whom Johnny Hines is said to have dodged, knocked out Manuel Rios in the third round of the feature preliminary. Johnson floored Rios just before the bell rang in the second and the Mexican was in no shape to continue although he came out for the third round. Johnson was on him in a jiffy, delivering a barrage of punches that brought the towel from Rios' hand.

Just a workout was all Pete Guerrero could give Sailor Larry Prael, San Pedro featherweight. Prael won every round decisively, Guerrero showing little but determination.

Solis Drops Doubtful Decision Raoul Solis, victim of questionable decisions in two previous fights, lost another erroneous verdict last night. Referee McDonald and one judge gave Louie Sapien the eye after Solis landed three blows to Sapien's one throughout the engagement. Sapien's intrepid socks carried more sting than Solis made the fight.

After slugging from bell to bell, Otto Blackwell and Manuel Delgado finished so exhausted that one good wallop would have finished both. Blackwell got the nod.

Santa Ana's Paul Brown beat Pete Roldon, brother of the main event. Roldon gave everything he had but Brown was the better sharpshooter, and stronger too.

Sal Solis, out of place far down on the card, knocked out Johnny Mendez in what was little short of a brawl. Both took plenty of punishment before the end came in the second round.

Levi Young, colored, stopped Alex Vanzuela, El Modena, and Toney Weiss kayroed Art Green. Both these ended in less than a round.

Concordians Name Officers For 1933

New officers and directors were elected at a meeting of the Concordia Athletic club of Orange at the Walker Memorial hall last night. Directors chosen were Walter Leitchfuss, Louis Pitschen, Henry Schmetzen and Otto Rietow. Holdover members are A. F. Schroeder, Leo Bunke and Walter Frick. Victor Baden is athletic director.

New Hollowell On Harvard Cinders

CAMBRIDGE, Jan. 11.—(INS)—"It's a dismal season indeed, for any Harvard team to struggle along without at least one Hollowell on its roster, but the 1933 version of the Crimson track squad was spared that ignominy.

AL'S NEW SUIT FITS HIM

An old friend in a new suit of clothes is Al Simmons, slugging outfielder from Milwaukee who used to play for Connie Mack and who was sold to the Chicago White Sox. Lou Comiskey, headman of the Sox, sent Al a new uniform for a New Year present. Here you see the swatmeister registering satisfaction in the mirror.

CRAIG WOOD FAVORITE AS GOLF STARS TEE OFF AT CALIENTE; WALTER HAGEN FAILS TO START

BY GEORGE H. BEALE (United Press Staff Correspondent) AGUA CALIENTE, Mex., Jan. 11.—(UP)—The "golden trail" of winter golf led to this Mexican border resort today when a field of 125 players started off on the qualifying round of the fourth annual $7500 Agua Caliente Open.

The bulk of the field was massed against husky Craig Wood, Deal, N. J., pro, whose amazing skill has earned him titles in three Pacific Coast tournaments this winter. Wood, who stood out as the ranking favorite to capture the local title, has annexed the San Francisco match play, the Pasadena and the Los Angeles Opens since he began his western invasion more than a month ago.

Wood was pitted against such stars as Leo Diegel, who enjoyed the advantage of playing on his home course, Fred Morrison of Pasadena, defending champion, "Lighthouse" Harry Cooper of Chicago, Willie Hunter of Los Angeles, all of whom commanded positions as threats.

CORNELL QUITS ALL ST. JOSEPH'S LOSE SPRING ATHLETICS TO ST. MARY'S FIVE

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 11.—(UP)—All of Cornell's intercollegiate athletics, except basketball, will be abandoned until the end of the school year in June, the executive board of the athletic association announced today.

The board voted this most drastic retrenchment in Cornell's history at a meeting late last night. The retrenchment does not affect football because Cornell has no spring football training. It will mean withdrawal of all of Cornell's crew from the Poughkeepsie regatta on the Hudson.

All the rest of the school's schedules, both varsity and freshman, will be abandoned, including baseball, track, wrestling, ice hockey, fencing and lacrosse.

RAJAH, HARD AT WORK, AIMS TO PLAY REGULARLY AS CARD

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 11.—(INS)—"I'm going to be in shape when the season starts," Hornsby said. "This is something new to me, but I like it. It sure is the real stuff for getting in shape."

"I'm going to make a comeback next season right in my own backyard here where I got my start in baseball. The Cardinals gave me the chance and I'm determined not to fail."

Will he win a regular job on the Cardinal infield? "I hope so," he said. "I think I'm still good enough for that. I will have slowed up a bit, but the batting eye is still there. I had the infield all arranged. The ankle that was broken is all right again. I've tested it by playing a lot of handball and it stood the test."

PASADENA WINS FROM S. A. IN EXTRA PERIOD

COAST PREPARATORY LEAGUE W. L. Pct. Alhambra 4 0 1.000. San Diego 4 0 1.000. Pasadena 2 1 .667. Santa Ana 2 1 .667. Long Beach 1 2 .333. Glendale 6 6 .500.

Games Friday Long Beach at Santa Ana; Glendale at Pasadena; San Diego at Alhambra (doubleheader).

Faced with four remaining assignments, all to be played at home, Coach Bill Cook's Saint basketball team was halfway through its double-round schedule in the Coast Preparatory league today, and still without a Santa Ana high school record, that of winning three Coast league games in one season.

Saint hopes were shattered at Pasadena last night when the Bulldogs tied the score on a technical foul in the closing seconds of play and then defeated Santa Ana, 37-34, in an extra three-minute playoff.

Six points behind at the half, the Cookmen climbed steadily into a 26-24 lead at the end of the third quarter, and were still leading, 33-32, as the timer picked his gun from the table in the final period. But Forrest Johnson, forward, placed the Millionaires back in the running by making good a technical foul, and an extra three-minute session.

Two changes appeared in the Saint lineup, Yonel going forward to center, and Clair Preininger from guard to forward. Only two substitutes were represented.

Caplan Miller, with 11 points, and Forward Wogges, with 10, shared offensive honors for the Bulldogs, while Ed Vines, guard, brother of the world's champion tennis player, was the most serious defensive threat of the winners.

In a preliminary Santa Ana's middleweights lost, 36 to 26, to the Bulldogs "Eecs." Harris Warren shone for the Saints, Captain Galbraith for Pasadena.

Substitutions: Pasadena—Gorby (4) for Geddes, Vines (1) for Lang, Johnson for Miller for Johnson. Santa Ana—Preininger for Sprague, Wiener for Yonel, Sprague for Preininger for Schwann.

Score by Quarters Santa Ana 8 6 14 7—35—34. Santa Ana 8 6 14 7—35—34. Extra three-minute session necessary.

Substitutions: Pasadena—Nakata for Emerson, Gates (1) for Perkins, Wenz for D. Emerson, Vincent for Bally, Bally (1) for Busick, Ackrill (4) for Nakata, Hart for Gates, McPherson for D. Emerson, Vincent for Bally, Price for Ackrill, Fagan for McPherson.

Santa Ana—Levens (5) for Smith, Warren (8) for O. Clem, R. Clem (1) for Levens, (3) for Hamill, Ojeda for Levens (1). Score by Quarters Pasadena 13 8 2 13—38. Santa Ana 6 12 10 2—20.

SAINT LIGHTNIES VANQUISH TUSTIN, 46-22

With Forwards Nissley and Yerington hitting the basket from all angles, Clyde Cook's Santa Ana high school lightweights outclassed Tustin's Class C basketball team, 46-22, in a free-lance game here yesterday.

Yerington scored 13 points, Nissley 16 to capture offensive honors for Santa Ana. The Cookmen travel to Alhambra Friday for a return engagement with the Moors, whom they defeated, 28 to 18, here last week.

Hawaiian Football Pilot Visitor Here

Albert Nahalea, varsity football captain of the University of Hawaii, and Bernard Trask, yell leader, spoke briefly and led bells before Santa Ana junior college students today. Through the efforts of the Y. M. C. A., the Hawaiians were persuaded to stop in Santa Ana enroute to the Y. M. C. A. inter-college conference at Asilomar. They plan to start home next Friday.

Public To Join Students In Saints' Banquet

With Mike Pecarovich, head coach at Gonzaga university, announced as principal speaker, Santa Ana football fans join Santa Ana high school students in honoring the faint football squad at a banquet Friday night.

The public is urged to attend the dinner, which will be held at 6 o'clock in the high school cafeteria. Tickets, selling for 50 cents, may be provided at Vic Walker's sporting goods store or at the school, it was explained.

Coach Pecarovich, an entertaining after-dinner speaker, played varsity football at Santa Clara and Gonzaga. He has coached at Loyola (Los Angeles) and Gonzaga, completing his second year at the Spokane institution in '32. Pecarovich's team last season won all but two games, losing to Washington, 19-7, and to Oregon State, 19-16.

This will be the second banquet in two days for Coach "Tex" Oliver's conference champions. They assemble at Legion hall as guests of Santa Ana post No. 131, Orv Mohler, "Tay" Brown and Ray Sparling, U. S. C. football stars, are scheduled to attend.

PREP SCHOOLS WILL VOTE ON METER SYSTEM

Whether the Coast Preparatory leagues go "metric" in track this spring and whether the one-time national sport of baseball will be maintained in the conference were two most important decisions to be made at a meeting of school representatives here this afternoon.

Spokesmen from San Diego, Long Beach, Pasadena, Alhambra, Glendale and Santa Ana were to meet in the offices of "Tex" Oliver, Santa Ana's physical education director.

There was a possibility that a 1933 football schedule would be adopted but this was expected to be delayed until the conference's spring session.

The league will draft track, baseball, tennis and golf schedules and decide whether to track the metric system of measurement, recently adopted by the A. A. U., would be used in Coast league meets.

GOLF PROSPECTS AT JAYSEE PROMISING

Eight experienced candidates promise to give Santa Ana junior college its best golf team in many seasons, according to Coach Bill Foote, who has instructed his men to report for daily practice at the Santa Ana Country club.

The Dons have been awarded the Orange Empire all-conference tournament, scheduled for May, and plan to have Santa Ana well represented against teams from Riverside, Fullerton, Chaffey, Pomona, Citrus and San Bernardino.

Al Peterson, Bill Kistingner, Fred Brooks, Alfred Forney, Jim Tawney, George Lake, John Wells and Tom Kistingner have joined the 1933 team. With a No. 2 iron, Tawney scored a hole-in-one at the country club yesterday. His shot came on No. 6, 174 yards.

BETTER THAN EVER

During the war "Red Dutton," National league hockey star, was so seriously wounded that physicians advised amputation of both his legs.

NINE ACES—GOOD HAND

Phil Taylor recently scored his ninth hole-in-one on the eighth hole of a course in Victoria, B. C.

OREGON STATE WILL NOT BID FOR BIG NAME

CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 11.—(INS)—Dean Harry Rogers, chairman of the Oregon State university board of athletic control, declared today that one of the present members of the coaching staff probably would be appointed to succeed Paul Schissler, who resigned yesterday after nine years as head football coach here.

"I don't see any reason to search the land for a 'big time' football coach," Rogers said. "There are competent coaches right here on our own staff."

CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 11.—(UP)—Oregon State today became the second Pacific Coast conference member to find itself seeking a new football coach after an unsuccessful 1932 season.

Paul John Schissler, head coach of the Beavers for the past nine years, resigned after a conference with Dr. W. J. Kerr, state chancellor of higher education, yesterday.

"I have nothing to say at this time," was Schissler's only comment on rumors he had lined up a coaching job in the East. Schissler encountered the most disastrous season in his coaching career last fall when Oregon State defeated only Montana in conference play, and lost to Fordham and Detroit in intercollegiate tilt. Considerable alumni and student criticism was voiced on the campus during the season.

A few weeks ago another veteran coach conference coach, "Pop" Warner, resigned at Stanford after his team finished the worst season in Warner's 39 years as a coach. Warner will coach at Temple university in Philadelphia next season.

Schissler's contract here would have expired in 1936. The immediate cause of his resignation was believed to have been Dr. Kerr's request that he accept a cut in his $8000 annual salary along with other state school employees.

Among the possible successors to Schissler who were mentioned today were Percy Loecey of Denver university; Mike Pecarovich of Gonzaga, and Larry Wolfe of Monmouth, Ore., Normal.

URBAN CAGERS HERE FOR GAMES TONIGHT

Urban Military Academy, newest of Santa Ana's athletic playmates, furnishes the opposition for Bill Foote's junior college basketball team in a non-conference game in Andrews gymnasium at 8 o'clock tonight.

If the Westwood school is represented on the court with any of the flashiness it displayed in football this season, Santa Ana should be given a hard battle in its final practice contest before meeting skill with San Bernardino in the Orange Empire conference opener here Saturday night.

It is indefinite whom the Dons mentor will start at guard against Urban, but the forward positions have been assigned to Jack Stewart and "Hen" Thier, center to Harold Spangler. Either Harold Welty and Charles Lawson or Palmer Stoddard and Alex Clark will open at guard, with the two remaining candidates slated for action with Hideo Higashi and Bragg, forwards; and Horace Rittner, center, in Foote's second group.

DEPRESSION DEPRIVES CRITICS OF SOME ARGUMENTS AGAINST GOVERNMENT IN BUSINESS

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The theory that private business is vastly more efficient than the government is not faring as well as it did in the days when large corporations were making money hand over fist.

Argument as to that point is from the 1926 index in reports of the Standard Statistics Company. Also, he says, the board was forced by law to take a secondary position on all loans. So Schilling suggests it might be a good idea for the Farm Board to take over industries for operation.

Then there's Judge George W. Anderson of the federal bench, former Interstate Commerce commissioner and U. S. district attorney, who suggests a 15 billion dollar government corporation to take over the railroads on the theory that they can be run more efficiently that way.

"In general, government business is managed on sounder and less wasteful lines than private corporation business," he has written in the Atlantic Monthly. "There is less fraud in government operation. Private corporations, however, are more successful in concealing both their frauds and inefficiencies than the government bureaucracies. In general, our government functions with less disregard of essential human rights and interests."

"It is also clear that government officials can hardly show less 'individual initiative' than our railroad executives. We are now disillusioned as to all our great leaders. There are none. . . . More than half our senators are able to do all but a few of our industrial or . . ."

Schilling compares the young Farm Board with older, seasoned industrial groups, points out that the board ran head-on into the depression almost as soon as established and says that although it is contended the board's capital structure has been reduced 63.4, a list of 421 industrial stocks shows an average decline of 78.5.

Comes also Dr. Isador Lubin, a widely-known economist of the Brookings Institution, who contends that federal government would appear far less expensive and Treasury deficits almost nonexistent if the Treasury did not charge to current budgets investments of a permanent or longtime character.

Lubin lists $1,227,000,000 in Reconstruction Finance Corporation stock investment, federal bank capital stock, farmers' marketing and seed loans and the half billion investment in public construction which he says no private business would charge up for immediate payment as the Treasury charged it this year to the taxpayer.

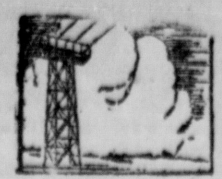

Public construction charges should be spread over the life of the projects, he says, and the loans charged on a separate investment account.

Further, there is the analysis of David Lawrence, editor and writer who proclaims that the real cost of the civil government of the United States is only $345,000,000 despite the 1933-34 federal budget of $3,500,000,000. The rest goes for the public debt, veterans, army and navy and the postal deficit which could be eliminated.

The real point in that breakdown of expenses is that it shows that the actual cost of operating this government represents only about one per cent of the national debt.

TWO PROGRAMS ON KREG OFFER REAL FEATURES

Two real programs of outstanding entertainment value are booked for tonight over radio KREG. One of these programs offers one of the most thrilling stories ever told over the radio. The other program offers an old favorite singing real melody.

At 7:45 the American Weekly program will be broadcast presenting a dramatization of a story which will appear in next Sunday's Los Angeles Examiner. The title of the story is "Captured by Chinese Bandits." The various characters in the story are represented in the radio presentation by well-known film personalities. The dramatization is most realistic and the most imaginative listener can easily visualize the thrilling events of the drama.

At 8 o'clock Charlotte Morgan, better known to radio audiences as "The Blues Girl," will be back on the air for her first program over radio KREG in many months. Listeners who have heard Miss Morgan will be glad to know that in the future she will offer 15 minutes of melody every Wednesday night at the same time. She accompanies herself at the piano.

KREG NOTES
Hungry? Well just tune in this afternoon, or any afternoon at 4 o'clock, on the program sponsored by Ketter's Cafe. During that broadcast it will be explained how some fortunate individual may win a free steak dinner each day during the all-request musical program. There are no obligations connected with this offer. Previous winners are announced daily.

Deacon Brown and His Peace-makers, with Brother McKinley, and the alluring Sister Magnolia will be on the air tonight at 7 o'clock with a new episode dealing with events in the "Temple of Justice."

Kaali's Hawaiians, on the air daily at 9:30 a. m. are always glad to answer telephone requests for numbers. If they cannot grant them at the time the numbers will be played during the following program.

RADIO FEATURES

Fritz Reiner, of the Curtis Institute of Music and Philadelphia Grand Opera, and former conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, will direct the NBC Symphony concert during the broadcast over an NBC nation-wide network, including KFSD at 6 o'clock tonight. The program will open with Beethoven's Symphony in C Minor No. 5.

Excerpts from Wagner's cycle of four music dramas, the "Ring" operas, will be sung by the mixed quartet to the accompaniment of an orchestra led by Emil Polak during Silver Strains over the NBC, including KECA from 8:30 to 9 o'clock tonight. Specially arranged for quartet and orchestra, the half-hour of the "Ring" series will offer among other selections the beautiful Sigmund's "Liebeslied" from "Die Walkure" and Wotan's "Farewell," which leads into the famous Fire Music, from the same opera.

What the post-war generation thinks of the war debts will be told from both sides at 2 p. m. tomorrow over a National Broadcasting company network including KFSD when students of Princeton and Lafayette debate the question on the air. The subject is: "Resolved: That the Allied War Debts to the United States Should Be Cancelled." Princeton will take the affirmative and Lafayette the negative.

HOLD BABY CLINIC

TALBERT, Jan. 11.—Thirty-five babies were examined at the welfare clinic held at the the Colonia Junex Mexican center in connection with the women's classes. Thirty mothers were present, and they greeted a group from the Santa Ana Daughters of Veterans, who presented a lovely silk United States flag through their president, Mrs. Roy Beall. Daughters of Veterans on Thursday afternoon attended the Japanese class and made the presentation of a similar flag to the group through the teacher of the Japanese school, Mr. Sekiguchi.

Increased anti-knock of 76 Harnesses waste heat Turns it into power!

189 Cubic Centimeters natural stabilized anti-knock fractions per gallon added to make 76 greatest gasoline value ever offered.

RIGHT—Heat is turned into POWER by high anti-knock rating of 76 because of more efficient combustion. You'll notice the difference, especially on hills.

Chart shows comparison of anti-knock rating of various gasoline January 1933

FROM ALL OVER THE WEST are pouring in enthusiastic endorsements of the Union Oil Company's announcement of an even higher anti-knock NON-PREMIUM gasoline.

The natural stabilized anti-knock fractions of 76 gasoline have been increased 189 cubic centimeters per gallon more than the best previous non-premium motor fuel—retaining definitely the leadership of 76 as the finest anti-knock octane non-premium gasoline ever offered.

4 Ways You Gain

The new improvements of Union 76 not only STOP KNOCKS and smooth out motor operation, but increase POWER through decreased engine temperatures and the harnessing of more waste heat. You can tell the difference, particularly on hills.

The new improvements also make 76 the most ECONOMICAL gasoline you can buy. You save eventually on repair bills because 76 stops the knocks (audible and inaudible) that damage wrist pins, valves, connecting rod bearings, and other engine parts.

And added MILEAGE is secured in direct ratio to the waste heat turned into power.

Change TODAY!

Selling for NO EXTRA COST, 76 is today's greatest gasoline value.

Why not try a tankful, NOW. Be sure to test it on a hill. Then see for yourself why hundreds of thousands of motorists are CHANGING TO 76.

Mona Moran, receptionist in a Wall Street law office, goes with her childhood sweetheart, Steve Saccarelli, to a popular supper resort, the Halcyon Club. Mona supports her invalid father, mother, little sister, Kitty, and her two brothers. Bud Moran comes to the Halcyon absent for three years. He has returned, well dressed and prosperous. With no thought of impropriety, he has ordered a gown and wrap sent to Mona which, after much indecision, she wears.

At the office that day Mona has met Barry Townsend, rich and socially prominent, but refused his invitation to dine with him.

But Mona comes to the Halcyon Club where she slipped away, the promoter, who has underworld connections. Mona sees her brother and sister, who are associating with gangsters. Steve tries to quiet her fears. Little Carr, fashion model, dismisses her escort and joins Mona and Steve. Then Steve's business partner arrives. He proves to be Barry Townsend. Barry tells Mona that Steve, years before, had been killed. How together they had fled for South America and have been operating a diamond mine at Townsend's inherited.

JO GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XI

For the rest of the evening Mona was all gaiety. She had determined to put her worries aside and not let Steve's party. During a dance she slipped away to telephone her home. Bud answered and a voice was casual, satisfying. Yes, he'd been working. Sure, was in now for the night. What? eating a sandwich. Yeah. Be me a little later, would she? All that was okay. He'd leave a bit.

Mona turned away from the telephone relieved. Bud was home and presently staying there. His voice seemed as innocent as Kitty's right have.

The four young people danced at the Club Morgan, exchanging parties with gay, flustering banter. It made each girl feel certain at secretly each man would have referred her to the other. Then they drove swiftly through the park to Steve's car to the latest and smartest club in Harlem and danced again.

"More like home, eh?" Barry laughed over his shoulder at Steve, a gorgeous café au lait dancer, pink, a lithe, arresting figure, sung by.

They ate again—coffee, golden brown, with toast and scrambled eggs. Suddenly Barry looked up to claim, "This is too late for you!" He was gazing at Mona for Lottie, apparently did not strike him as a party to the nine o'clock appearance at work. "Tell you what I'll do! I'll use my pull at the office to get the day off for you!"

"Sh!" Mona whispered. They did not tell Steve that they had let at Garrettson's.

"That's right," muttered Barry, and Mona both smiled. This was the second secret they had shared. For both of them knew that the two Mona's influence at Garrettson's office was greater than the young man's.

In the front seat of the car, her olden head frankly on Steve's shoulder, Lottie opened her eyes to announce that old Pilgrim himself couldn't get her to appear on duty at his shop before 3 p. m.

"And maybe I won't be there then!" she added. "They'll think I'm at the fashion show and the fashion show will think I'm at the shop. All's well for little Lottie!"

"Of course they wouldn't think of telephoning," suggested Steve, giving her head a good-natured push. "They couldn't check up on you, I suppose?"

"I'll take that chance," Lottie answered.

Mona noted, not without a pang, that Steve and Lottie had reached a state of complete camaraderie. "You're good, Lottie," she murmured.

"Good?" echoed the other girl, settling her wrap about her. "I've got to be good! There hasn't been a figure like mine at Pilgrim's since Mona left us."

"And there won't be until she goes back!" Steve agreed firmly.

"Mona's heart leaped. Instantly she was ashamed of berrigding Lottie a conquest. Certainly Lottie was generous enough.

They dropped Lottie in front of her apartment house in the 50's amid effusive interchange of banter, telephone numbers and good-nights.

Barry left them at the Park avenue address. He was spending the night at the apartment to which both young men referred as "Steve's place." Mona was sitting beside Steve now. Her own address was hardly 10 blocks away and he drove slowly.

"Steve, I'm sending these things back tomorrow."

"We'll talk that over later, money. What you need now is a few hours of sleep."

"Well, later then," she answered drowsily.

"See, Min, it's been great to see you."

She aroused herself long enough to answer this. "I observe that you seem to think so."

"Because I talked a lot to Lottie? How could anyone escape? Oh, Mona—that isn't like you."

She patted his hand as it lay on the wheel and his fingers caught her own.

"You see," Steve explained naively.

Mona noted, not without a pang, that Steve and Lottie had reached a state of complete camaraderie. "You're good, Lottie," she murmured.

"Good?" echoed the other girl, settling her wrap about her. "I've got to be good! There hasn't been a figure like mine at Pilgrim's since Mona left us."

"And there won't be until she goes back!" Steve agreed firmly.

"I wanted old Tenny to have the best."

The car glided carefully out of the way of a taxicab, appearing suddenly from nowhere, and turned into East 67th street. It settled quietly a door or so away from the entrance to the Moran apartment. Steve walked with Mona to the entrance. She stood for a moment and looked at him gravely.

"Don't worry about Bud," Steve whispered. "I'll take a hand in that. Forget it!"

He tipped her face gently upward, his gloved fingers beneath the quietly pointed chin. "Remember how I used to call you 'little pointy face'?"

Mona remembered.

"Bye. See you some more. I'll call you this afternoon at the office. Maybe you'll let me drive you home or something."

"Maybe."

Steve returned to the car, paused a moment lighting a cigarette and slipped beneath the wheel. Mona, watching, knew that the creaking of her door and the starting of the motor car would not be simultaneous.

She tried not to worry about Bud as she saw, gratefully, that he was asleep in his room. She reflected that Steve's interest in the matter would help her a lot.

Back at the Halcyon Club, Buck Harkins was finishing a long talk with Chile.

"Yeah, Saccarelli offered a diamond for sale. Diamond of the first water, Chile. Blue as steel. Bigger than the Regent of Portugal. Bigger than the Star of the South. Two hundred twenty carats. Chile! What a stone!"

"Where'd he get it?"

"Came by it honestly—that's the funny part. He's offering it on the open market and we've got to get it!"

Chile stood up, stretching his huge length with a spread-eagle motion that filled the room.

"How we going to get it? How we going to get rid of it, if we lay our hands on it? Ever think of that?"

Buck Harkins swung his chair around and eyed Chile. "Say, for half a million I could get rid of the City Hall, wrapped up in tissue paper with a red ribbon on it."

Chile returned his glance speculatively. "I believe you," he decided quietly. "Well, guess I'll be moving on." He reached the door.

"Chile!"

"Yeah?"

Saccarelli's crazy about the Kid's sister."

"Young Moran?"

"Young Moran. I seen them dancing. He's almost in love her. I wouldn't accuse him of being entirely in love with anyone though—except the Empress of Peru!"

Chile stared. "Empress? Going in for high life is he? The son of a gun!"

Buck swayed a hand explanatorily. "That's the name he gave the diamond, Chile. Empress of Peru. Peru ain't had no Empress, see? Well the trade ain't never had no diamond like this one. That's how I figure it."

Chile nodded. "I see."

"Well!" Buck turned briskly to his desk once more for a last minute accounting. He glanced about to add, "Sooner or later Steve will show the diamond to this girl of his. Women love diamonds, Savvy?"

"I savvy."

"Fine. Keep the Kid occupied with any phoney job you can think of and pay him 50 smackers a week. Toss in a present of some clothes. Supply him with theater tickets and introduce him to some good-looking dames. Sooner or later he's going to tell us where the little old Empress hides out. See?"

"Well," Chile smiled broadly, "now that you mention it, Buck, I do see. A 50-50 split, Buck, eh?"

"Fifty-fifty, Chile!" Buck nodded. "Like always."

Outside the door Chile lighted a cigaret meditatively. "Like always, Yeah!"

HERE'S NEW HEALTH FOR YOUR LIVER

Now banish bad breath, pimples, constipation; feel like a million!

That tired, frowsy feeling in the morning, that "dark-brown" taste in the mouth—if you would banish them and win back buoyant health, don't expect relief from salts, mineral oil, or candy and chewing-gum laxatives.

For such remedies only move the bowels. While chances are, you're one of the thousands suffering from sluggish liver which does not yield sufficient bile—causing pimples, blemishes, headaches, bad breath and a general run-down feeling.

What you need is something which acts thoroughly but harmlessly upon the liver. And in Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets you will find that "something," which stimulates the bile flow.

A successful substitute for calomel, these famous tablets are compounded of pure vegetable ingredients, and have been praised for years by millions.

To get and keep the bile flowing freely—correcting constipation, skin troubles, and win back that "fine-and-dandy" feeling of youth—go to your druggist for Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets today. 15c, 30c, 60c.—Adv.

Taxpayers Association Official Sees Huge Deficit

AMENDMENTS
SUGGESTED AS
WAY TO SAVENEW I. C. C. HEAD
The new chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission is Patrick J. Farrell, (below), a member of the commission for 32 years. He succeeds Claude R. Porter, who resigned and assumes office on January 1.RESULTS FROM
LACK OF IRON
TOLD GROWERS

Experiments conducted by A. R. C. Haas, plant physiologist of the Citrus Experiment station of the University of California, disclose the injurious effects of manganese and iron deficiencies on the growth of citrus. Summarizing his research work, Dr. Haas reports that:

"Iron is essential for healthy growth in citrus; a deficiency brings about chlorosis. Although citrus leaves become yellowish green or chlorotic when manganese is deficient, they do not mottle. Gum or resinous spots occur on either or both sides of the leaves, their number at first being greatest along the base of the midrib. Oil glands in the leaves show no effect from such a deficiency.

"When manganese is deficient in citrus leaves, in most cases less iron appears to be accumulated in the leaves. Mottle-leaf of citrus has not been shown to be a result of iron deficiency. Manganese cannot take the place of iron, and conversely iron cannot take the place of manganese. Most, if not all, compounds of iron contain manganese as an impurity. This fact must be considered in any study of manganese deficiency."

Growers are invited to avail themselves of the services of the farm advisor's office for further details or inspection of orchards. He also asked them not to let sentiment stand in the way if they were given a chance to vote on constitutional amendments to balance the budget.

The program was presented to the club by J. Wayne Harrison and DeWitt Dudley, members of the club.

WILL INSTALL
K. P. OFFICERS
HERE TONIGHT

Newly elected officers of Santa Ana lodge No. 149, Knights of Pythias, will be installed with ceremonies to be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the K. of P. hall, Fifth and Broadway.

Fred Davis, Jim Clough and Walter Armstrong, all of the Anaheim lodge, will act as the installing team. Ray Stauffer, retiring chancellor commander of the local lodge, will act as master of ceremonies.

Officers to be installed are as follows: Ed Marley, chancellor commander; Homer Thorton, vice chancellor commander; Harold Haskell, prelate; Ray L. Stauffer, master of work; John R. Ritter, keeper of records and seals; C. B. Weber, master of finance; Calvin Powers, master of exchequer; Louis Baade, inner guard; Frank Hallock, outer guard; and Ray K. Bishop, trustee for a two year term.

ISSUE WARNING ON FAKE SOLICITOR

Orange county residents are warned to watch for a man who is going from house to house soliciting funds in the name of the Women's Christian Temperance union.

He was in Anaheim Monday according to Mrs. Cora Hale, president of the Orange county union, asking for funds to assist in keeping the eighteenth amendment, and it was anticipated he will further his program today.

Mrs. Hale said he has no authority from the W. C. T. U. for his solicitation, and that those on whom he calls should not subscribe to the fund with the idea that it is a W. C. T. U. activity.

Radionic Expert
Takes Over Office

Dr. E. A. Bauer, associated with Dr. P. A. Nielsen here for the past two years, has assumed charge of the offices under his own name, having bought out Dr. Nielsen.

Dr. Bauer is said to have reputation as an authority on drugless methods of health restoration, and was radionic technician for the entire United States for five years of the Radionic Laboratories at Detroit. During this time he conducted clinics in 35 states, and made over 20,000 radionic examinations.

Dr. Bauer is reported in constant demand for consultation as a radionic expert in many Western states, but has decided to devote all of his time to actual practice in Santa Ana, making this city his permanent home.

WESLEY BULLIS RITES
WESTMINSTER, Jan. 11.—Funeral services for Wesley Bullis, husband of the former Lula Marden, native Westminister woman, were held January 7 at the Glen-dale cemetery. Robert Hazard, a cousin of Mrs. Bullis, and Mrs. Hazard attended the funeral.

RECEIPTS OF NEARLY $200,000
AND INCREASE IN MEMBERSHIP
REPORTED BY CITRUS HOUSE

Net gains in membership and acreage, receipts of $197,770 and refunds of $38,896.86 to growers, are three of the highlights shown today in the annual report of the Santa Ana-Tustin Mutual Citrus association, local affiliation of the Mutual Orange Distributors. Refunds totalled 33 cents a packed box, representing 23 cents a packed box from the 1932 packing costs, and 10 cents a box, the 1929 revolving fund.

This was the ninth annual meeting of the association and was preceded by a turkey dinner served to 150 members and guests in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church. W. Hoxie, president, was chairman of the meeting. Invocation was given by the Rev. J. Stuart Hyatt, pastor of the church. Several short talks were given by officials of the Mutual Orange Distributors, speakers being C. P. Earley, general manager; A. D. Knight, assistant sales manager; W. H. Blodgett, field manager; A. L. Chandler, of the supply department, and H. L. Sherman, growers' service division.

Scores Loose Fruit Traffic
The menace of the loose fruit traffic which has grown in the citrus industry in the last two years was brought out forcibly by Earley in his talk.

"The managers of the majority of the M.O.D. packing houses were officially on record on January 7 as being opposed to this uncontrolled traffic in loose fruit," Earley said. "The expression of opinion represents virtually 100 per cent of the orange tonnage of this organization, and we invite the other citrus distributors to attempt with us to find a solution to the present condition which is cutting so heavily into the returns to the growers."

"This uncontrolled traffic in loose fruit, and in the special packs, is the greatest menace before the citrus grower today. This low grade fruit is competing ruthlessly with our good fruit in every market it touches and the best interests of the orange grower demands, without question, that it be eliminated from the field."

Suggests Market Change
Suggestions as to the betterment of the present methods of citrus fruit distribution also were contained in the talk by Hoxie, president of the Tustin association. He pointed out that at present there is a tendency to crowd fruit into the 10 auction markets of the east, with consequent overstocking of these points and the best interests of the orange grower demands, without question, that it be eliminated from the field.

Financial report of the Tustin house shows it to be in splendid financial condition, and that it is growing lustily. All of its property is paid for, there is no indebtedness, the report states, and the revolving fund is fully paid up to the 1930 season.

During the nine years of its operation, the report continues, the association has increased 500 per cent in its acreage and 1100 per cent in its tonnage.

"In our first year," it was said by A. J. Thels, manager, "we handled only 16,250 field boxes of fruit. In 1932 we handled 190,724 field boxes."

"The year closed with a net gain of 28.3 per cent in membership and 14.9 per cent in acreage."

PEPPER WEEVIL
CAMPAIGN DUE TO BEGIN SOON

BY ERIC E. EASTMAN
Assistant Farm Advisor

The annual winter clean-up campaign of the pepper growers, which was delayed by the lateness of the picking season, will be inaugurated in the near future. This campaign consists in securing the co-operation of all pepper growers and land owners in completely plowing under all residues of last year's pepper crop and destroying all black nightshade plants in or adjacent to the pepper growing area.

The annual clean-up campaign was inaugurated as a result of the studies of the U. S. Pepper Weevil laboratory on the weevil habits of the pepper weevil, which is a close relative to the cotton boll weevil. Old pepper plants and the black nightshade weed are the materials upon which the pepper weevil feeds during the winter. The removal of these plants eliminates the food supply of the pepper weevil and results in the death of most of the pests before planting time the following season.

The efficiency of this method of control was demonstrated last winter when a thorough clean-up was made by the growers with the assistance of the agricultural commissioner's office. By spring the pepper weevil population was so greatly reduced that but little or no dusting or other control was necessary during the past season. The experience of 1932 therefore indicates that an effective winter clean-up campaign will eliminate the pepper weevil problem.

Welfare Benefit
Planned By Club

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Jan. 11.—Fifteen were in attendance at the regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club at the Mission cafe Monday evening.

Mrs. Mary Percival conducted the business meeting. The club voted to give an entertainment for the benefit of the welfare work in San Clemente and San Juan Capistrano. Mrs. Genevieve Bottger, program chairman will be the leader on this. Delegates to the reorganization meeting to be held in Santa Ana Saturday were elected. They are Margaret Nelson and Betty Joyce, with Dorothy Latham, Mabel Crapens as alternates.

Mrs. Eleanor Clark, first president of this club, will be installed as head of the new district; and Hazel Gilbert, of San Juan Capistrano, the present secretary, will be installed as corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Paul H. Esslinger entertained the club with an interesting account of the European trip from which she and Dr. Esslinger returned recently.

RABBIT SHARK

The second rabbit-shark ever taken in Orange county waters was today in the possession of Orange county health officers, preparatory to shipment for an inspection and a complete report by Stanford university's marine laboratory.

Ordinarily found only in tropical seas, the rabbit-shark is a strange appearing fish about 15 inches long, that "sits up" in the water on small legs that look like those of a rabbit and at will can make light with globular equipment above its eyes.

Caught in a net by Joe Dixon, Newport harbor fisherman, the rabbit-shark was taken to the county's laboratory by D. H. Westmoreland, Orange county sanitary inspector. Dixon also caught the first one, landing it on a hook.

Motorist Gets Six
Month Jail Term
On Driving Count

Edward S. Radford, sailor of San Pedro, has been sentenced to six months in the county jail in justice Kenneth Morrison's court after he had pleaded guilty to reckless driving. The charge had been reduced from driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor.

Radford was arrested by California Highway Patrol officer Joe Clever, who chased Radford from Tenth street and Broadway almost to the Santa Ana boulevard before he stopped him.

Clever was on his way home at the time. Radford made a wide swing into Broadway from Tenth street, the officer claiming that the car zigzagged the entire width of the street.

FOOTBALL MEN TO BE GUESTS
OF S. A. LEGION

An important meeting of the Santa Ana Post, American Legion is to be held at the post's clubhouse tomorrow night, when a number of football stars, both of Santa Ana and Southern California are to be guests and business of an important nature is to come up.

The meeting will start with a dinner to be served at 6:30 p. m. by the Legion auxiliary, the dinner being the first served under a new low price schedule. The reduction in price was made for the purpose of stimulating attendance. It was pointed out.

Coach "Tex" Oliver of the Santa Ana High school and his Saints are to be honor guests, and other guests who will be present will be Captain Ray Brown, Ray Sparling, Orr Mohler of the U. S. C. team. A Los Angeles sports writer is also to be present and is expected to make an address.

Legion members are especially urged to attend because of the fact that amendments to the constitution and by-laws will be offered for adoption. These proposed amendments are being offered for adoption in order that the constitution or the local post will conform to the requirements of the constitution and by-laws of the department of California.

Trio Arrested In
Bogus Money Case
Sentenced Jan. 12

Three youths arrested by Huntington Beach police for passing counterfeit half dollars will appear for sentence in federal court in Los Angeles Thursday, the trio having pleaded guilty to the charge.

Bob Vance, 21, and Rudolph McTea, 21, formerly of Mountain View, Okla., were nabbed by Officers H. L. Grant and H. F. Robidoux on December 17 after William T. Marshall, proprietor of the Sea Breeze cafe in the beach city, became suspicious of coins given him.

Confessions of Vance and McTea resulted in the arrest at Escondido of Robert A. Powers, 27, another Oklahoman.

Apparatus for turning out the bogus half dollars was discovered in a house occupied by Powers in the San Diego county city.

Spirit of Yule Revived
For Merry Birthday
Club Dinner

Unavoidably prevented from observing their usual holiday custom of celebrating Christmas with a special dinner and exchange of gifts, members of a friendly little birthday club merely deferred their celebration until the rush of holidays was over. And on Saturday night they enjoyed a revival of the Yule spirit when they were entertained in delightful fashion, by Miss Mabel Cole in her home, 705 South Sycamore street.

It was easy to imagine that everything was in the very heart of the Christmas celebration, for a large tree sparkled with tinsel ornaments and bright colored lights; poinsettias and Christmas trees lent brilliancy to the scene, and a feast of roast turkey and all the traditional Yule dishes was served. Furthermore, Miss Cole employed little green Christmas tree place cards, slender green tapers and a table decoration in which Santa's reindeer dashed gaily through snow drifts.

To complete the pleasant spirit of the evening, members of the club had reserved the gifts of their annual exchange, and added amusing joke gifts, until the after-dinner interval around the sparkling tree had all the merriment and the delightful element of surprise associated with the celebration of December 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cole assisted their daughter in all details of her hospitality, while Birthday club members sharing the happy evening were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wycoff, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Timm, the Misses Esther Coffman, Ethel Coffman and Helen Gallagher, Mrs. Rosa Myers, Mrs. Marie Fowler and the hostess, Miss Mabel Cole.

New Southern District
B. P. W. to Meet Here
Saturday

It is with a world of interest that Santa Ana Business and Professional Women's club members and their president, Mrs. Adelaide Cochran, approached their hostess duties to club sisters of the newly formed Southern district, who are to assemble here Saturday afternoon for the organization and first general business session, directed by the acting president, Mrs. Eleanor Clark of San Clemente.

Sessions will begin at 3 o'clock in the Y. W. clubrooms, where Mrs. Clark, later to be installed as first president of the new district, will direct the various business matters relating to the formal organization. By-laws of the district will be arranged to conform to those of state and national federations. Officers installed will serve until the first annual convention in April. Heretofore, conventions have been held in the early autumn, but since the annual state convention is to be held in San Jose on May 20 and 21, the district will change its date in order to have new officers installed in anticipation of state and national conventions.

For the dinner at which guests from the Los Angeles county line to San Diego, will be present, Santa Ana club will entertain in Ebbl clubhouse where Ebbl section members are serving a 6:30 o'clock dinner in the peacock room. While Mrs. Clark's duties as president include arranging the program for this session, she has delegated to the hostess club, the responsibilities of planning musical events.

Mrs. Marshall Northcross, vice president and program chairman, has arranged to present the Women's Octet directed by Ruth Armstrong, and composed of Cecile Fross Willis, Edith Cornell, Irma Huffman May, Sally Lee Scales, Leonora Tompkins, Marie Bishop, Holly Lash Visel and Bessie Lane. Other program features are to include a series of three-minute talks by presidents of the different clubs of the district.

Of local clubwomen, Miss Lorraine French will have charge of banquet details, Mrs. Mildred Reinhardt, decorations, and Mrs. N. E. Mayhill, reservations.

Announcements

Members of Santa Ana chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, have been notified of the D. A. R. Council meeting of this district, which is to be held in Whittier on Tuesday, January 17. Important matters of business are to be brought before the council, and members from various chapters will be in attendance. The sessions are to be held in the Whittier Woman's clubhouse, 222 South Main street. With a luncheon at a nominal price, served at 1 o'clock. All Santa Ana chapter members who plan to be present are asked to make their luncheon reservations not later than Saturday noon through Mrs. M. M. Holmes, 1327 W. or Mrs. Cotton Mather, 688.

Women's Benefit association will hold a covered dish luncheon Friday at 12 o'clock in the home of Mrs. May Curtis, 222 South Main street. This will precede the regular meeting to be held at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon as has been announced.

Women's Missionary society of Calvary church will hold a prayer meeting Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the lounge of Ebbl clubhouse. All women of the church and congregation are invited to attend.

The Dorcas Choral club of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday at 2 p.m. in the primary room of the church.

Dinner Party Comes
As Farewell to Honoree

A farewell dinner party for Miss Barbara Lackey, who left Tuesday to make her home in Ingleswood, was given recently by her friend, Miss Trudis Johnson. The latter's home, 820 West Sixth street, was the scene of the evening affair.

Dinner appointments were carried out in yellow. Following the delicious menu, served in courses, guests enjoyed several rounds of bridge. Miss Lackey was presented with some lovely gifts from the assembled guests.

Those present were the honoree, Miss Lackey, and the Misses Elva Ringland, Elizabeth Garlock, Winifred Triplett, Bonnie Hamilton, Dorothy Dutzman, Beatrice Hamley, and the hostess, Trudis Johnson.

Santa Anans Attend
Midwinter Conclave

The midwinter conference of the Lyceum Eteri club held at the Bible Institute in Los Angeles January 7 and 8 was attended by a large group of members of the local Eteri organization. The Santa Ana club received a loving cup for its large attendance, and for the growth it has made during the past year.

In the group were Audrey Duckett, Ethel Duckett, Elizabeth Garlock, Norma Buck, Myra Lake, Ruth Allen, Dorothy Allen, Madeline Winchell, Peggy Tadlock, Betty Lehnardt, Virginia Palmer, Myrtle Abplanalp, Mabel Wilson, Lula Bell Garrett, Anna Sutherland, Virginia Thompson, Myrtle Graham and Mrs. Carl Lykke.

Mrs. Lykke, president of the local club, gave a short talk. One of the main speakers of the conference was the Rev. F. E. Lindgren of Santa Ana.

EAT AND GROW SLIM

Dinner
Large cup mutton broth with pearl barley
Slice of mutton from broth
1 small head cauliflower
1 small baked potato with 1 tsp. butter

Lettuce and apple salad
Mineral oil French dressing
1/2 grapefruit, no sugar
Clear tea or black coffee.

Buy a lean piece of mutton (the top of the leg is fine) and make a kettle of broth with it. Season the mutton with a clove of garlic, a diced onion, a diced carrot, parsley and bay leaf. Cook slowly to get a good broth, add a small handful of pearl barley when the broth is about half done. The broth is delicious, the hot slice of mutton with its vegetables, a satisfying main dish, while the cold mutton makes the ideal "cold cut" for the diet.

In this instance the whole family might be served the broth and the boiled mutton with caper sauce plus different vegetables, or more of them. That lessens the labor for the diet if she is also the cook. The salad for the family might have diced celery and walnuts added to the apple to make Waldorf Salad.

Calory total for dinner, 505.

TODAY'S RECIPE
Veal Pot Roast

5 pounds veal shoulder
1/2 pound beef suet
1 large onion, diced
Bacon fat to fry onion
1/2 cups stale bread crumbs
Sage to season dressing
Salt and pepper

Have the shoulder of veal boned and be sure that the butcher does not unconsciously let the veal bone stray towards the dog-meat box. That veal bone belongs in the gravy part of this roast, not in the dog-box.

Slice the beef suet and fry out the fat which will then be used to fry the sliced onion—all this, of course, in the pot-roast kettle.

Now that the onion has been fried, scoop it out and mix with the bread crumbs, sage, salt and pepper. If the dressing seems a bit dry beat up an egg with a little milk and use to bind the dressing. Fill the pocket in the shoulder, skewer into place and tie securely. Rub the roast with a mixture of flour and dry mustard and quickly sear on all sides in the hot fat in the kettle. Now comes the important part and that is—

Seasoning the Gravy
Dice up a second onion in the hot fat, add a minced clove of garlic, an dthe bone we rescued from the dog-box. If you like the flavor of tomato, add also a small can of tomato paste, then 3 cups of hot water. Cover and let the pot roast simmer for a good 3 1/2 hours. Take up the roast, thicken and strain the gravy.

The 3225 calories in the roast and gravy look like a lot I will admit, but remember this, this roast will probably appear at another meal as a roast or in hash, providing no more than four are served at one time.

Thursday: An old German dish: Beans and potatoes, a surprisingly good combination for a nourishing main dish.

New Officers Elected By Immanuel Church Members

GAIN RECORDED BY LUTHERANS IN PAST YEAR

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—Officers were chosen last night at the meeting of the congregation of the Immanuel Lutheran church, with Walter Kletke presiding at the annual session.

William Buescher was elected deacon to succeed Emil Loeschner and hold over members of this group are Andrew Meyer and Gus Struck. New trustees are Andrew Edwards and Loyd Pryer succeeding Walter Kletke and C. W. Piken. Hold over members of the board of trustees are Henry Hinrichs, Albert Struck and W. C. Mathias.

The new member of the finance committee is John Koelling, who takes the place of Martin Danner. Hold over members of the committee are Arthur Maasman and Gus Struck. Walter Kletke was elected the new Sunday School superintendent to succeed E. T. Pingle, who became assistant superintendent. W. C. Mathias was re-elected treasurer and H. O. Engert was elected recording secretary to succeed E. T. Pingle. Henry Hinrich was re-elected financial secretary.

The new chairman of the congregation is Albert Struck, who succeeds Walter Kletke. The pastor of the church, the Rev. A. G. Webbeking, gave a report of the church activities and reported a gain in all branches with 21 new church members and a total of 262 members in the congregation. The church school now has 42 pupils; the Sunday school, 69; the Ladies' Aid society, 67; the Waltham League, 41, and the choir, 30, it was revealed.

The treasurer reported that all bills of the organization were paid and that a substantial sum is in the treasury.

4-H CLUB MEETS

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—Members of the Orange Blossoms 4-H club met Monday evening in the home of their adult advisor, Mrs. A. F. Schroeder, of Fairhaven avenue. A report was given on the farm center meeting at Cypress the latter part of the week when the group gave a demonstration of making an insect pocket. The demonstration was the same as that which won the club a silver loving cup earlier in the season. Those reporting

Rebekahs Guests At Social Affair

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—Veteran Rebekahs were entertained yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Jennie Brown, East Collins avenue. As Mrs. Sherman Gillogly, who was to have been co-hostess, was unable to be present, her daughter, Miss Helen Gillogly, assisted Mrs. Brown in extending hospitality during the afternoon.

During a business session, conducted by Mrs. Effie Winterrowd, president, Mrs. Hattie Pulley was voted in as a new member of the organization. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon, with poinsettias and desert blooms contributing floral decorations.

Those present were Mesdames Effie Winterrowd, Ida Campbell, Nina Dale, Abbie Gould, Claudina Windolph, Annie Crawford, Laura Brown, Della Peine, Elizabeth Meats, Annie Christiansen, Anna Wood, Edith Knesel, Madge Christiansen, Lucy Richards, and two special guests, Mrs. Blanche Isle and Miss Gillogly, with the hostess, Mrs. Brown.

The next meeting is to be held February 14 in I. O. O. F. hall. Mrs. Knesel and Mrs. Bowen will be hostesses at this time.

MRS. WIEMAN GIVES SECOND TALK THURSDAY

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—The second of a series of talks under the auspices of the Orange city council P.-T. A. is to be given by Dr. Regina Westcott-Wieman Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Orange Union High school auditorium.

Dr. Wieman will continue her discussion on "Problems of Adolescence," after which she will answer questions on the topic. There are six talks in the series. All interested are invited to attend.

The lectures are entirely free and are open to the public. Those in charge of the series state that Dr. Wieman's talks are of interest not only to those who have children but to the public in general.

On the demonstration were Luberta Morgan, Virginia Buhman, Evelyn Johnson and Virginia Andrich.

UNION READY FOR DEBATE BY HALL SUMMERS

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—Holding the first of three all-day sessions, members of the Orange W. C. T. U. met yesterday in the home of Mrs. Mary Gross, North Center street. Mrs. Pearl Kendall Hess was the speaker at the morning session was held, with the pre-session executive board meeting held in Los Angeles.

Plans were made for the presentation of the Hall-Summers debate here next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist church under the auspices of the Orange union. A men's chorus from Anaheim is to furnish the music, it was announced.

Following a covered dish luncheon served at noon, the afternoon session was held, with the president, Mrs. Minnie Neville, presiding. Miss Carrie Heywood read a letter from Osta M. Underwood, of Nashville, Ky., in answer to Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt's comment on the girls of America. Devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Clara L. Sumner, evangelistic director, who read, "The Story of the Other Wise Man." Mrs. E. E. Schurr led singing and gave a short talk on "Little Things."

Mrs. Neville read the New Year's message sent by Mrs. Ella Boole, national president of the W.C.T.U. Miss Elsie Parsons read from the 23rd Psalm. Members noted that Frances E. Willard had been given fourth place as one of the leading women of the past 100 years as a result of a contest recently concluded by a publication. Announcement was made that weekly prayer services are held by the local union on Wednesday at 9:30 a. m. in the home of Mrs. W. H. Patrick, 135 South Cypress street.

The next regular meeting of the union is to be held January 24 in the Presbyterian church. It was decided to have the next all-day session in February in the home of Mrs. Clara Sumner, 169 North Harwood street.

Guild Members Resume Activity

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—Members of the Alice Lewis Guild of the First Presbyterian church resumed their activities Monday evening, holding a sewing session in the church. The time was spent in making print dresses to be distributed through local welfare channels.

During a business session, in charge of Mrs. Vern O. Estes, president, Mrs. J. T. McInnis was re-elected secretary-treasurer, a position she had filled until resigning recently.

Those present were Mrs. F. Tibbitts, Mrs. Day, Mrs. Don Smiley, Mrs. W. G. Carpenter, Mrs. J. T. McInnis, Mrs. C. E. Wood, Mrs. C. A. Pister and Mrs. Estes.

ORANGE PERSONALS

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Nell Gauger, Mission court, East Chapman avenue, entertained as luncheon guests today, Mrs. Myra E. Hendricks, Mrs. W. H. Johnson and Mrs. C. O. Powell, all of Orange.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ehlen of Pasadena are the parents of a son, born January 5. Mr. Ehlen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Ehlen, 242 South Olive street.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Pentecost have moved here from Garden Grove, establishing their home at 1615 West Almond avenue. They are former residents of this city.

Recent guests in the home of Mrs. C. S. Ragan, South Tustin street, were Mrs. Bessie Smith of Whittier, Mrs. Stump of Hanford and Mrs. Dora Dalrymple of Long Beach.

A day at Trabuco canyon was enjoyed this week by Orange residents, including Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Phippen and daughter Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mansur, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smiley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wagner and Billy and Tommy Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Brown and daughter, Mildred, of Riverside, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rossier, 923 West Chapman avenue, one day this week. Mrs. Rossier's mother, Mrs. R. G. Dow, has returned to her home in Inglewood, having spent a week here in the Rossier home.

John Campbell, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Campbell, 182 South Pepper street, who was injured last week when he was struck by a car as he was returning from school, resumed his place in the West Orange school today. The young lad was bruised and had the ligaments in his hip torn.

Thomas Green, 463 North Center street, was taken to his home today from St. Joseph's hospital, where he underwent a major operation about two weeks ago. Mr. Green is making a satisfactory progress toward recovery.

Samuel O. Hart is enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. C. E. Smiley and Mrs. C. W. Coffey drove to Long Beach yesterday to complete plans for the program of the Woman's club to be given Monday at the clubhouse. Mrs. Smiley is program chairman for the day and Mrs. Coffey is the section president.

Mrs. Henry Meier, East Chapman avenue, is confined to her home with a sprained ankle. Mrs. Meier stepped on a small pebble on the sidewalk in Orange and turned her ankle.

Mrs. M. Schaffert, 552 South Grand street, is reported as getting along nicely at her home here, where she has been confined with a broken leg for the past four weeks.

Several members of the Orange American Legion auxiliary were in Buena Park Tuesday attending a meeting of the auxiliary county council. In the group were Mrs. Dolores Goodwin, president, and Mrs. Clara Haines, Mrs. Charlotte Adams, Mrs. Lucy Tipton and Miss Maud Sisson.

Mrs. J. E. Nichols, 158 South Batavia street, is reported as making satisfactory progress toward recovery after a serious operation performed at St. Joseph's hospital 10 days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McInnis are moving from 545 North Batavia street to 256 North Harwood street.

Y. W. Board Heads To Be Named Soon

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—Meeting at the Orange Union High school yesterday, members of the Y. W. C. A. board heard the report of the nominating committee, a list of 15 names being presented for consideration. Five new members of the board are to be chosen from the list at a meeting to be called later. The committee included Mrs. A. Haven Smith, Mrs. Margaret Scott and Mrs. C. Wesley Kolkhorst.

Plans were made for a joint meeting to be held with the Y. M. C. A. January 23 and Mrs. Florence McCoy was appointed to confer with a committee from the Y. M. C. A. headed by A. D. Burkett.

Miss Ethel V. Walker reported that the finance committee had revised the budget to meet the funds secured from the fall drive and that a reduction of the salary of the secretary of the Y. W. had been necessary. The committee was composed of Miss Walker, Mrs. F. M. Gulick and Mrs. A. D. Burkett.

Miss Lavinia Compton, secretary of the group, reported on the fall activities of the Girl Reserves, telling of Christmas events and the Hi-Tri party for Mexican children. Attention was called to the Y. W. C. A. meeting at Santa Ana, January 31 and to the district conference of Girl Reserves February 10-11 in the same city. Mrs. Harry Haines is in charge of housing girl delegates in Orange homes, as Orange shares hostess duties with Santa Ana.

CLUB SECTION PREPARES FOR MARCH EVENT

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—The Second Economics section of the Orange Woman's club made plans yesterday for the program which members are to sponsor March 6 at the clubhouse. Details of the plans are to be announced later. Mrs. J. T. McInnes, section leader, presided.

Early spring colors were stressed in the appointments for the table where a covered dish luncheon was served. Candles were in pale yellow and pale green and flowers were in these tints. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. W. B. Dennis, Mrs. Henry Terry and Mrs. H. A. Coburn.

Following the business meeting, bridge tables were set up and the afternoon was spent at cards. High score was made by Mrs. Ernest Ross and low by Mrs. McInnes.

Present other than the hostesses were Mesdames George Bartley, C. C. Bonebrake, W. B. Dennis, Anna Elmer, A. H. Halleck, John Hirst, R. L. Howell, Charles Oldfield, O. G. Hains, Ernest Ross, J. L. McInnes, J. F. Rowley, R. C. Steele sr., Gwendolyn Thompson and Arthur Fullerton.

FRIENDS ARRANGE PASADENA PROGRAM

EL MODENA, Jan. 11.—Local members of the Woman's Missionary society of the Friends church are planning to attend the mid-year conference January 13 in the First Friends church, Raymond and Villa, Pasadena. The meeting will open at 10 a. m. The afternoon session opens at 1:30 p. m.

Members who desire to go to this meeting are asked to get in touch with Mrs. W. D. Granger, of Orange, by telephone, at once.

PLAN CARD PARTY

MIDWAY CITY, Jan. 11.—The Midway City Woman's club will sponsor the monthly public card party on Friday evening at the clubhouse.

College Quartet Gives Program At Church Tonight

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—The quartet of the California Christian college will give a musical program tonight at the mid-week service at the First Christian church, it was announced by the pastor of the church, the Rev. Franklin H. Minck, this morning. Rival Hawkins, student at the college, will conduct the second of a series of six mid-week services by students.

Miss Lorraine Ingle, daughter of Otis Ingle, of this city and graduate of the Orange Union High school, is a member of the quartet.

MERCHANTS FROWN ON PRIVATE PATROL

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—At a meeting of the directors of the Merchants' bureau held at the Orange Community Chamber of Commerce yesterday it was decided that members of the bureau are not in favor of a private night patrol being established by two Los Angeles men.

The two men first made the proposal to merchants two weeks ago to establish the patrol and asked for two dollars from each merchant to receive the protection. This, it was estimated at the meeting yesterday, would amount to about $200 a month. It was brought out that merchants of the city pay a business tax and that local police will furnish extra patrol if needed. Chief of Police Richards was present at yesterday's session.

According to C. H. Robinson, president of the Merchants' bureau, it is understood that several merchants have already paid the patrol promoters the money required for a month's service.

Mission Workers Orange Visitors

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—The Rev. and Mrs. P. M. McCluer, of San Diego, are visiting in the home of Mrs. McCluer's mother, Mrs. Mertie Robinson, 126 North Grand street. MRS. LORD AND B. RICHARDSON WED IN HOME

ORANGE, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Mary Lord and Ben F. Richardson, both residents of this city, were married at the residence of the bride, 235 North Batavia street, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. L. V. Lucas, pastor of the First Methodist church, read the service and Mrs. Lord entered the living room, where the marriage took place with her oldest son, W. W. Lord.

The bride wore a becoming frock of peach flowered crepe and a corsage of sweet-peas and maiden hair fern. The room of the home were filled with baskets of sweet-peas and fern and a color scheme of pink and white predominated. Cakes and fruit punch were served following the ceremony and table decorations furthered the chosen motif. Mrs. Clifton McConnell and Mrs. T. E. Lord, of Santa Ana, presided at the punch bowl.

A reception followed the wedding and neighbors and friends came to offer their congratulations during the afternoon. Wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Lord and daughters, Ellen and Betty Jane, of Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. Clifton McConnell and son, Phil McConnell, Miss M. G. Ring, Mrs. O. A. Gardner and daughter, Irene; Mrs. Mabel Elliott, Mrs. Mary McMillan, Mrs. Carrie Balch, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lester, Miss Marjiam J. Laurie, Mrs. T. F. Myracle, Mrs. Glenn Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lord, Robert L. Mathews and Miss Blanche Vrooman.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

As Duncy eyed the carrots he said, "Gee, but they look good to me. I've heard that they are very good to eat when they are raw."

"I'd like to nibble one right now. I'd eat the whole thing up, somehow. I must admit they are the finest that I ever saw."

"I think you're hinting for some food," said Scouty. "Don't you know that's rude?" And then the market man broke in and said, "Oh, that's all right."

Each Tiny took one carrot and wee Scouty said, "Please understand that it is best to chew food slowly. That is good advice."

"If lots of time each one will take, we will not get a tummy ache." And then they started eating. My, the carrots tasted nice.

"We're set to go," the rabbit cried. "And you kids promised me a ride. You'll find I'm rather heavy, but we'll try it just the same."

When I get seated I will yell, and then let's travel on, pell-mell. If you boys tip me over in the snow 'twill be a shame."

"Oh, we'll be careful. Do not fret!" said Windy. "But, if you upset, I'm sure it will not hurt you. We all took a fine kerflop."

"The snow is very soft today. It's just like landing in some hay. Now, if we get to traveling too fast for you, about stop."

Away they went. And, gee, what fun! The Tinymites began to run, all taking turns at pushing. Merry shouts rang in the air.

The rabbit quite enjoyed the noise and soon it said, "Hey, faster, boys! We're going right to my house and we shortly will be there."

400 Present For Monthly Christian Church Rally

BIBLE TOPIC OF LEADERS AT H. B. GATHERING

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Jan. 11.—Four hundred prominent pastors, laymen and women of the church attending, the monthly rally of the Christian churches of Southern California was held in the Christian church here yesterday. "The Bible" was the subject for discussion at the meeting. Different speakers taking up the various angles of influence the Bible has exerted on mankind and civilization.

Special music features were included in the program. Sessions were held in the morning, afternoon and at night. The women of the First Christian church served noon luncheon to 175 guests and in the evening served dinner to 200 guests. Among the prominent speakers at the rally were W. S. Martin, Atlanta, Ga., who will within a few weeks complete 50 years of service as a pastor in the Christian church. He is the author of the famous church song, "God Will Take Care of You."

He discussed pleasure and profit of Bible study. He stated that he has had a standing offer of $100 for any person who can show a discrepancy in the Bible. He said he had the offer standing for 37 years with no claimant.

C. C. Root, pastor of the Christian church of Redlands, talked on the poetry and art of the Bible. The February rally of the Christian church will be held at Redlands.

W. A. Patrick, of Long Beach, was chairman of the meeting. W. R. Wheatland, of Bellflower, was music chairman. Other speakers were J. M. Shelly, Corona; A. O. Wright, Compton; Morgan Harlow, Los Angeles; A. C. Gerard, Long Beach; Mrs. Hazel Vert and Mrs. Clifford Carpenter of Los Angeles contributed special music.

Dr. George P. Taubman, pastor of the First Christian church of Long Beach, and teacher of the largest men's Bible class in the world, was the principal speaker. He mentioned Technocracy and opposed it. He said America needed salvation more than it needs good times. He said the business men needed support and aid, that the depression fell hard upon them. He said that if we had salvation the depression would disappear.

Club Members Work On Quilt

BUENA PARK, Jan. 11.—Members of Old Maid's club held their regular meeting as guests of Miss Emily Binder at her home on Stanton avenue recently. The making of blocks for a friendship quilt for the hostess occupied most of the afternoon. Margaret Battelle announced that "Anchors Away" would be the theme song for the club. Gingerbread with whipped cream and tea were served at the close of the afternoon.

Miss Lona Travis was reported ill as initiation of Miss Travis and Miss Polly Uphaw was postponed until the next regular meeting.

Nazarene Church Closes Services

MIDWAY CITY, Jan. 11.—National Week of prayer, which was observed by the Midway City Nazarene church with services each night, was concluded with a communion service January 8, the pastor, the Rev. John J. Woodson, taking the subject as the text of his sermon.

Speakers for the week were the Rev. C. D. Hicks of Santa Ana; the Rev. Edward Moody, Garden Grove; the Rev. E. Waddie, Santa Ana; the Rev. C. G. Carter, Westminster; with the Rev. Grover Ralston, of Garden Grove, preaching the final sermon.

CHANGING C. E. TIME.—Announcement is made of the change in the hour of Christian Endeavor or church services at the local Presbyterian church. The Christian Endeavor society, which has met at 7:30 o'clock, will convene at 7 o'clock beginning next Sunday evening. The Junior Christian Endeavor members will meet at 6 o'clock instead of 6:30.

Are You Nervous, Weak?

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery builds up the stomach and the blood so that the entire system feels the beneficial effect. Your skin clears up, your appetite increases, you feel more peppy. Read what Mrs. T. J. Garrett of 33 N. 5th St., Colton, Calif., says: "I was so nervous and weak that I was a wreck. I had no appetite and was not able to sleep at night. I would twitch and turn, had pains and aches all over, had no strength whatever, and my breath was very short. I took Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and in a couple of weeks I was feeling like a million dollars and was able to do all my work again."

PROPOSED SCHOOL CUT HIT BY COREY IN TALK BEFORE PLACENTIA P. T. A. MEMBERS

PLACENTIA, Jan. 11.—It is the duty of the patron of the public school to inquire of the school boards of his districts, both high school and grammar school, just what the proposed tax cut on school funds, advocated by Governor Rolph, will mean to the district before voting on the issue, according to Arthur F. Corey, assistant superintendent of Orange County schools, speaking yesterday at the Placentia P. T. A. meeting.

The speaker outlined the proposed cut, to come in state aid to schools, and collected from public utility corporations, chiefly, which will for grammar schools change $20 per average daily attendance to $24. Corey said that according to figures of Vierling Keweenaw, state superintendent of public instruction, 1400 schools in California cannot open without complete state aid, and that in other districts, with property valuations lowered, the complete cut to teachers will be 25 per cent again, with the added burden in other districts coming in increased local taxation.

Corey said "The trouble now is that the poor man pays the bill, and the man who can pay is not paying. We cannot turn children loose with just a smattering of education in this complex world. The governor of the state needs to learn that education of youth is as important as his salary or his airplane rides."

Mrs. J. H. Rymer presided. Miss Margaret Dean's sixth grade room presented a group of songs. Miss Carolyn Strong's students, including in special parts, Bernard Yorba, Robert Ingham, Angelo Casale, Jimmie Griffen, Helen Hojes, Billy Eisenacher, Arnold Dominguez and Robert Marz, presented the dramatization of "The Caddis Decision," arranged by a pupil, Thelma Hargrove, from a reading lesson story.

VALUE OF HOT LUNCHEONS TOLD BY PRINCIPAL PROGRAM HELD BY PLACENTIA FARM CENTER

WESTMINSTER, Jan. 11.—Children who have sufficient nourishment double their work in the school room, according to statistics given by Prof. James Monroe, in a report at the Parent-Teacher Association meeting this week.

This interesting fact was learned by Mr. Monroe through a check made by him since hot lunches have been provided children at noon. There are eight being furnished lunches at present and more pupils should be receiving them, the principal stated.

The theme of the P. T. A. program was "Health" and Dr. Edward Lee Russell of the Orange county health office was the speaker.

It was voted to try to have another moving picture show as a lunch benefit. One will be held this month if present plans carry, but the date has not been set. Mrs. Lucille Wise and her financial committee will be in charge. Founders' day will be observed at the February meeting, which will be held on the first Monday evening. The annual Founders' day gift will be secured through the sale of birthday cake and coffee at the meeting.

Harold Peterson, safety chairman of the P. T. A., told of the rearrangement of the school bus routes to accommodate the new pupils.

ORGANIZE CLUB ON TECHNOCRACY

COSTA MESA, Jan. 11.—A group of 10 citizens met at the R. S. Erbe store building Monday evening to make plans for the forming of a Technocracy club.

The aim of this group is to obtain authoritative information on technocracy and to disseminate the same to the public.

There will be a meeting next Monday night at the same location at 7:30 o'clock, to which all interested are invited to attend.

50th Anniversary Observed By Mesa Couple Thursday

COSTA MESA, Jan. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyd Costa, mesa pioneers, of 2044 Orange street, will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home Thursday from 1 to 5 p. m., when they will greet their many friends made over a period of 44 years in their residence in Orange county.

Robert Boyd is a native of the Isle of Man. Mrs. Boyd a native Californian.

Cancel Program In Mesa Church

COSTA MESA, Jan. 11.—The prohibition program scheduled for this evening at the Community church by the Rev. and Mrs. Fowler has been cancelled. The usual prayer meeting followed by the pre-view of the Sunday school lesson by the Rev. W. Rowntree will be held.

30 AT L. T. MEET.—Thirty members of the Loyal Temperance legion met Monday afternoon at headquarters on South Bradford avenue, where Mrs. Ira MacNamee, leader, and members of the Main street group provided the entertainment. Helen Hodges presided.

Mrs. MacNamee told a "Story of the Messenger Boy," outlining the effect of alcohol on the system. Reports showed two new members had joined.

PLACENTIA, Jan. 11.—Reports of committee heads, an impromptu talk by Ralph McFadden, president of the Orange County Farm bureau, and showing of a group of films on citrus industry by Russell Simmons, all combined to make an interesting and instructive session of the Placentia Farm Bureau meeting Tuesday night at the Placentia Chamber of Commerce hall.

Chief report made by McFadden was on the attitude of the farm bureau on the county fruit patrol. McFadden said the changing of the patrol to the sheriff's office has been to insure its permanency, since it was operating before as an emergency program, and that it will be designated in the new location of the farm detail department of the office, that it may retain its identity.

H. H. Hale suggested that all costs, we want an efficient patrol, and said he doubted that so few men can care for the county. Hale also said he is glad the county is awakening to the necessity of action on the water situation. In connection with the underground water levels, William Bielefeldt observed his well, which is being watched, has maintained a good level this year.

W. A. Cory, assistant farm advisor, announced a citrus school of instruction at Anaheim Union High school February 13 and 14. Russell Simmons explained the sale of surplus fruit.

President Harold Lang urged a large attendance at the next meeting, the second Tuesday of February, when Sen. Nelson Edwards and Representative Ted Craig will talk on legislative matters.

Mr. Clark was a native of Ireland, having come to America when a small child. He had no living relatives, so far as is known. He came to New Westminster from Oregon 10 months ago. Mr. Clark was a friend of relatives of George Allen, proprietor of the New Westminster fruit stand.

Party Held For Cast of Pageant

WESTMINSTER, Jan. 11.—Showing her appreciation of work done by the group of young people who presented a pageant in the local Presbyterian church under her supervision, Mrs. T. E. Turpin acted as hostess at a party given for the boys and girls at the church hall. Mrs. Turpin, Mrs. Aza Snow and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Carter led the games which were introduced during the evening. Cake and chocolate were served.

Those who were the honor guests at the party included John Day, Merrill Crane, Willis Kohl, Clifford Crane, Elbert Hall, Arnold Kohls, Dale Walker, Richard Adams, Bill Turpin, Gladys Mae Parker, Fern Taylor, Zonnie Taylor, Melba Crane, Ellen Edwards, Phyllis Snow, Mary Glanovitch, Virginia Turpin, Miss Margaret Edwards, Mrs. Marie Hare, all of whom took part in the pageant.

Yorba Linda Is Dinner Honoree

YORBA LINDA, Jan. 11.—Carl H. Seamans was guest of honor at a party recently when members of the Past Matrons and Patrons' association of Yorba Linda Eastern Star surprised him on the occasion of his birthday anniversary. Guests brought covered dishes for dinner, which was served at a long table centered with gladioluses, heather and sweet peas.

A short musical program was presented. James Logsdon of Yorba Linda read "When Melinda Sings." Guests included past matrons and patrons of the lodge with their wives and husbands.

At a short business session, J. F. Nittel and Mrs. Anna De Beni were informally initiated into the association. They are junior past matron and patron of the lodge.

SAYS PEOPLE SEE NEED OF MANY CHANGES

NEWPORT BEACH, Jan. 11.—Technocracy is not really new, but it has apparently started people all over the United States, and the world, thinking along economic lines, and if people keep on thinking we may be able to get the nominees of the principal political parties in this country to talk sense to us at election times instead of floundering, according to Lloyd Hamren, of the Huntington Beach Union High school faculty. Professor Hamren talked yesterday at the American Legion hut here to members of the Newport Harbor Service club and the Costa Mesa Lions club, meeting jointly.

Professor Hamren's remarks on technocracy were in the nature of a criticism. He does not believe the technocrats have added proof of all their statements and conclusions. Many of their statements are not new, having been added years ago by writers like Karl Marx and the foremost thinkers along economic lines, he declared.

What the technocrats, the foremost economists, sociologists and many others, including President Hoover's committee on social trends, which reported recently, all agree on is that technological development, which has adjusted itself for many years, through development of new industries and in other ways, has now reached the point where surplus labor is not and cannot all be employed, and therefore there must be some major readjustments, said Hamren.

In answer to a question regarding the gold dollar and its place in the economic system, the speaker declared that no matter what the standard of value, it must vary just as the dollar does, as long as it is not controlled. In other words, it is not the gold dollar that varies, but commodities, he said.

The Newport Harbor Service club, beginning next week, will meet Wednesday noons at the Legion hut, while the Costa Mesa Lions will gather at noon Tuesdays, it was decided.

Hold Rites For Westminister Man

WESTMINSTER, Jan. 11.—The funeral of William Clark, 45, whose death occurred suddenly at the Orange county hospital Friday evening, when he was taken there for examination following several fainting spells, was held Tuesday morning at Huntington Beach, with interment following in Fairhaven cemetery.

Mr. Clark was a native of Ireland, having come to America when a small child. He had no living relatives, so far as is known. He came to New Westminster from Oregon 10 months ago. Mr. Clark was a friend of relatives of George Allen, proprietor of the New Westminster fruit stand.

Firemen Launch Campaign Jan. 17

WESTMINSTER, Jan. 11.—January 17 has been set as the opening date for the campaign for funds for the equipment needed for the operation of the Westminster Volunteer Fire department.

The sum needed for present purposes is $150, insurance, license, new electric batteries for the fire truck and a siren being the immediate needs. The truck, which has been fixed over for fire fighting, is one owned by the fire chief, Oral Hare, and there is sufficient hose and equipment already on hand.

Westminster C. C. Heads Re-Elected

WESTMINSTER, Jan. 11.—Re-election of officers of the Westminster Chamber of Commerce resulted at the annual election held Monday evening. Henry Schmitz was again made president of the organization, with Fred Baumgartner, secretary and George Clough, secretary-treasurer.

There was some change in the board of directors. The present board includes George Clough, Fred Basse, Raymond Burns, Henry Schmitz, Dr. Russell L. Johnson, Wendie Bealer, Charles Sigler, O. C. Hare and Clyde Day.

Expect 200 Delegates At P. T. A. Meet

NEWPORT BEACH, Jan. 11.—Two hundred delegates of Parent-Teacher associations of Orange county and elsewhere are expected to attend a Parent-Teacher conference at the Newport Harbor Union High school Friday, according to Mrs. Vera Sparkes, president of the Newport Beach Parent-Teacher association.

Mrs. Sparkes is one of the hostesses for the conference, the others being Mrs. R. H. Hill, president of the Costa Mesa School P. T. A., and Mrs. J. D. Moss, president of the Lindbergh P. T. A. The conference will be conducted by Mrs. O. Miller Robertson, of Arlington, third vice president of the State P. T. A.

The meeting will open at 9:30 o'clock following registration of delegates, with an address of welcome by S. H. Davidson, principal of the high school. Then there will be a business meeting, to be followed by a program.

MINSTREL SHOW FOR FULLERTON LEGION GROUP

FULLERTON, Jan. 11.—Plans were arranged Monday night for presentation of a minstrel show by members of the Fullerton American Legion post and the auxiliary, when Mrs. Marie Brewster, president of the auxiliary, appointed a committee to work with the post committee on the affair, which will be given in March.

Other business at the session included announcement by Mrs. Dennis Black of the opening of the poppy poster contest among students of seventh, eighth and ninth grades in the schools. All entries stand a chance for winning three prizes, a $150 prize from the local auxiliary for first, a $5 prize from the state for first and a $25 prize from the national for first. Besides, the local post is offering a dollar and a 75 cent prize for second and first best posters. The contest closes February 26.

The program outline for the coming meetings includes a joint meeting of post and auxiliary January 24, when a speaker on legislation will be present. A Valentine party is scheduled for February 11.

Mrs. Black, Mrs. Marguerite McKenry, Mrs. Helen Ramsey, Mrs. Florence Willis and Mrs. Brewer, delegates, attended the county council session at Buena Park.

Luncheon, Card Party for Club

MIDWAY CITY, Jan. 11.—Jolly dozen club members were guests of Mrs. N. A. Nelson at her Jackson street home for the January party, which featured the usual pot luck luncheon at noon and an afternoon at cards.

The two Santa Ana members of the club, Mrs. D. Everette Hall and Mrs. Glenn Wells, were absent, Mrs. McCarthy and Mrs. Fred Foley substituting for them, while Mrs. W. W. Millholland, Westminster; Mrs. Maurice Price, Buena; Mrs. A. E. Holley, Wintersburg; Mrs. S. A. Miller, Mrs. Robert Hazard, Mrs. J. L. Esser, Mrs. B. L. Kirkham, Mrs. W. E. Moore, Mrs. S. A. Nelson, Midway City.

Mrs. W. E. Moore will act as hostess at the February meeting.

Program Planned By Woman's Club

MIDWAY CITY, Jan. 11.—"Garden of Eden" is to be the subject taken up by the Midway City Woman's club for the month of January, while Mrs. Margaret Pryor as program chairman for the two meetings slated for the second and fourth Thursdays. For Thursday's meeting Mrs. Pryor has been successful in securing both speakers and musicians from Orange. For the second meeting of the month those presented on the program are to be from Huntington Beach.

Plan Talk On Technocracy In Fullerton

FULLERTON, Jan. 11.—In announcing reopening of the evening law classes, Charles L. Ruby, instructor, said Dr. Russell H. Ewing, professor of political science at the University of Southern California, will talk on "Technocracy" at 7:30 p. m., Thursday, and will answer any questions following the talk, in an open forum. The classes are open to the public without cost. They are held in the old auditorium of the high school.

MAY HANSON HONORED.—GARDEN GROVE, Jan. 11.—Miss May Hanson, who will leave soon for her home in North Dakota, was complimented with a farewell party recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards on Lamson street. Miss Hanson has been making her home with her grandmother, the late Mrs. Lydia Jane Smith.

After a social evening, refreshments were served to the following: The Misses May Hanson, Joy and Fern Schmitz, Phyllis and Elva Ralston, Evelyn Blachholder and Marjorie Huestad.

DIRECTORS PLACENTIA MUTUAL CITRUS ASSOCIATION RETURNED; 1474 CARS FRUIT SOLD IN YEAR

PLACENTIA, Jan. 11.—Although the season was one of the most difficult in the history of the orange industry, the Placentia Mutual Orange association marketed 1,474.81 cars of fruit in 1931, including in their shipments, 1129.16 cars of valencias, 81.85 cars of navels, 2.22 cars of miscellaneous fruits and 209.50 cars of loose fruit, with 452 boxes of oranges and 348 boxes of lemons to the car, according to a report of the secretary-manager, made to 207 member-growers at the annual meeting yesterday at the packinghouse.

Including refunds and stock the season's average for valencias was $1.32 per packed, or .77 per field box.

Election of directors of this, the largest citrus packing house in the world, returned the same group to office, namely John C. Tuffree, serving his 19th year this past season as president of the board; William Bielefeldt, E. A. Beck, C. C. Wagner, E. C. Basten, Edward C. Backs and E. A. Bryant Jr.

The report of the ballot was returned and made by William Wallop during the late afternoon session. After the turkey dinner served by members of the American Legion auxiliary, the local post secretary of the California Fruit Growers' exchange, talked on "Co-operative Marketing" and told of the remarkable results obtained through co-operation this year, considering that all fruit, from the third largest crop in history, was sold on a depressed market.

Russell Simmons showed pictures of growing and marketing of the citrus crops at the afternoon session.

In the report sent to growers, Easton pointed out that in line with lower returns, expenses were cut. All supplies were purchased at lower rates, except expenses of the controlled public utility corporations, "and taxes and interest were as burdensome as ever."

"However," he concluded, "the maximum savings from all of these sources will not put the citrus business on a paying basis in surplus crop years. There may be means of securing wider distribution and we may find new outlets for a portion of our crops, but even if we do not the growers are to get the maximum returns for their fruit depends almost entirely on their own ability to co-operate in the regulation and limitation of shipments, and in this there is plenty of reason for pessimism."

LAST RITES HELD FOR G. W. GERHART

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Jan. 11.—The O. C. Field Gasoline company is adding three new stills to its gasoline plant at Seventeenth and Palm. The improvements will cost several thousand dollars and will increase the capacity of the plant to take care of surplus gas now being produced by the wells on which the company has gas contracts.

Standard Oil company moved timbers on the Harry Anderson lease at Walnut and Twenty-first street yesterday preparatory to installing drilling equipment for a redrill job in the Anderson well. This well is in the vicinity of the Wilshire and Superior oil fields. The Standard well protect its wells in the area.

Standard Oil will also redrill one of its wells in the Seal Beach field, it is reported here. Wilshire is said to be planning to go into 11 wells in the field with a view of increasing production.

There are rumors in the field that the curtailment program here is meeting with opposition and that considerable friction exists between some of the majors and larger independent companies.

Surprise Party Observes Birthday

WESTMINSTER, Jan. 11.—A surprise was perpetrated upon Mrs. H. O. Chamberlin by a group of friends from San Pedro and Wilmington, who motored to Westminster to observe the birthday anniversary of her birthday, which occurred Monday. The group brought a lovely anniversary cake with decorations of red and blue candles on the white icing. Sandwiches and coffee and cake were served by the self invited guests. A lovely purse was presented to the honoree.

Bridge entertained for the evening and the honoree presented prizes to the two high winners, Osborn Perryman and Mrs. William Bride. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Osborn Perryman, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Perry and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Bride and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlin.

PLAY IN RECITAL

SAN CLEMENTE, Jan. 11.—Miss Lucy Ellen Cotton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton H. Cotton, and Jackie Virginia Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Robertson, played in a recital in Santa Ana given by pupils of Mrs. Dorothy Page Harper, Miss Cotton played "Tarantella," by Thompson, and "Minuet," by Thompson; Miss Robertson played "Polish Dance," by Xavier Schay wenka, and "Pan," by Benjamin Godard.

Miss Jennie Lane has returned from a two weeks visit with friends in Alhambra, Los Angeles and Hollywood.

COLLEGE HEAD GIVES ADDRESS ON 'GUIDANCE'

FULLERTON, Jan. 11.—Dr. Walter Dexter, president of Whittier college, spoke before members of the Fullerton Union High School Parent Teacher association at the January meeting Monday night at the school library.

Dr. Dexter talked on "Guidance" in keeping with the general program of the organization, whose aims for the year are expressed as "to assist our parents and teachers to become better leaders of youth." He was introduced by Dr. Thomas Newlin, who was introduced by the president, Mrs. J. D. Hardy.

The speaker, outlining that the great need of the day is training in ordered liberty, suggested that youth inherits a topsy-turvy world, suffering from world hatreds, from the after-effects of the World War; from depression, social disorders, changes being brought about in changing statuses, placing a responsibility of great moment on parents and teachers in assisting youth to adjust himself to the situation.

The first characteristic of potential influence is to show the "I Care" spirit to youth, he said. "Of all the tragedies of youth it is the young person who thinks nobody cares," he said. Assuring youth that mothers and fathers, teachers and leaders "care" presents a secure background, he concluded.

More can be given through shared experience than any other way, he said, and concluded that "unless we do share with them we will not be what we should be to our sons and daughters, and we cannot make known the great civilization that might be built in this world where the great challenge is how to live together in peace."

Yorba Linda and Placentia members were hostesses. Special musical numbers were given by the "A" group of the Girls' Glee club, with Miss Ruth Tilton leading, singing "Faith, Hope and Love," and by Beatrice McElhan, who sang "Thanks Be to God," with Genevieve Townsend accompanying at the piano.

Miss Anita Shepherdson led in the flag salute. A. S. Redfern, vice principal, led in the opening prayer.

Mrs. Hardy announced that Dr. Regina Westcott is continuing her lectures each Wednesday at the high school auditorium, and that on January 23, from 3 to 4 p. m., there will be on display 125 mounted photos of the California missions, a collection belonging to W. P. Webb, and that at 4:30 on each day members of the faculty will give short talks on the history of the missions.

IMPROVEMENTS UNDER WAY ON BEACH PLANT

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Jan. 11.—The O. C. Field Gasoline company is adding three new stills to its gasoline plant at Seventeenth and Palm.
